30 sea or air, into Nigeria, shall file monthly returns with evidence of payment of

1 the tax as specified under section 18 of the Nigeria Tax Act to the Service in 2 respect of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock or goods shipped or 3 loaded into an aircraft in Nigeria.

4 (2) The monthly return shall be filed not later than the 21st day of 5 the following month.

6 (3) The returns shall contain a detailed gross revenue statement of 7 the Nigerian operations for that month, showing the amount of total sums 8 receivable during the period, and supported with all invoices issued to the 9 relevant customers.

10 (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt the 11 company from filing its annual returns or filing returns in respect of its non-12 freight operations or any other incidental income and payment of tax in 13 respect of its non-freight or incidental income.

14 22.-(1) A taxable person shall, in respect of Value Added Tax 15 (VAT), with or without a notice and whether or not an economic activity has 16 taken place, submit a return to the Service in the prescribed form, by the date 17 specified in subsection (2) of this section or in a regulation issued by the 18 Service for that purpose.

Returns Value
Added Tax

19 (2) The returns for each month shall be filed on or before the 21st 20 day of the following month.

21 (3) Where the Service grants an extension of the period for filing 22 the returns under this section, such extension shall not imply the extension 23 of time to pay the VAT.

24 (4) The returns shall contain the input tax paid, output tax collected 25 and VAT payable in respect of all taxable supplies in the preceding month.

26 (5) The provision of subsection (2) of this section above shall not 27 apply to a small business.

28 (6) A small business may choose to file returns.

29 (7) A business, upon ceasing to be a small business, shall file 30 monthly VAT returns.

1 (8) In determining whether a person meets the threshold in subsection 2 (5) of this section, the value of the following taxable supplies shall be 3 excluded-

4 (a) supply of a capital asset of the person; and

5 (b) supply made solely as a consequence of the person selling the 6 whole or a part of its business or permanently ceasing to carry on business.

7 (9) A taxable person granted exemption in subsection (5) of this 8 section is exempt from the provisions of sections 100 and 102 of this Act and 9 section 151 of the Nigeria Tax Act.

10 (10) The provisions of subsection (5) of this section shall not apply to 11 companies engaged in petroleum operations as defined in the Nigeria Tax Act.

12 (11) Where technology is deployed by the Service, a taxable person 13 shall render returns in real time or at such other time as the Service may 14 prescribe.

15 (12) For the purpose of attribution, any return under this section shall 16 provide details of derivation of taxable supplies by location in a manner 17 prescribed by the Service.

Value Added
Tax Fiscalisation
System

18 23.-(1) Where the Service deploys an Electronic Fiscal System (EFS), 19 any person making a taxable supply shall use the EFS for recording and 20 reporting all supplies.

21 (2) The Service may prescribe technical specifications and security 22 standards for using the EFS to record and report supplies.

23 (3) Taxable persons shall be responsible for maintaining accurate 24 records of all transactions passing through the EFS.

25 (4) The Service shall specify the fiscalisation system to be adopted 26 and a transition arrangement for its implementation.

Returns of Excise Duty

27 24.-(1) A taxable person engaged in the provision of excisable 28 services shall, in respect of excise duty imposed under chapter seven of the 29 Nigeria Tax Act submit a return to the Service in the prescribed form specified 30 by the Service.

1                   (2) The return shall be rendered on or before the 21st day of the 2 following month or such other time as may be determined by the Service 3 except in the case of foreign exchange transactions which shall be within 7 4 days of the transaction.

5                   (3) The return shall contain the following information-

6                   (a) description of the excisable services provided during the 7 month;

8                   (b) value of the excisable services on which duty is payable;

9                   (c) amount of excise duty payable; and 10                  (d) such other particulars as may be prescribed by the Service.

11                  25. A company granted priority status shall, in accordance with 12 section 11 of this Act, in each year of assessment, file income tax returns in 13 the manner specified for both priority and non-priority products or services 14 of the company.

Returns by priority companies

15                  26.-(1) All taxable persons enjoying incentives administered by 16 the relevant tax authorities, including incentives provided under chapter 17 eight and section 60 of Nigeria Tax Act, shall, in addition to annual tax 18 returns, submit Annual Tax Incentives returns to the relevant tax authority in 19 the form prescribed by the Service covering income tax and any incentive 20 other than those which are generally available to all taxpayers.

Tax incentive returns

21                  (2) In the case of annual tax incentives returns filed by individuals, 22 the tax authority in each State shall, within 60 days from the end of the due 23 date for filing of the annual tax returns, transmit to the Service the annual tax 24 incentives returns filed.

25                  (3) The Service shall, while submitting its annual report to the 26 Minister under section 23 of Nigerian Revenue Service Act, include the 27 summary of the returns received under subsections (1) and (2) of this 28 section.

29                  (4) The Minister may issue a regulation for administration of this 30 section.

Returns for deduction of tax at source

1                   27. Every person who has an obligation to deduct and remit tax under 2 this Act or any other tax legislation shall render monthly returns as specified in 3 the regulation issued for that purpose.

Information to be delivered by bankers and others

4                   28.-(1) Without prejudice to section 138 of this Act, every bank, 5 insurance company, stock-broking firm, or any other financial institution, shall 6 prepare, with or without demand by the relevant tax authority, quarterly returns 7 to the relevant tax authority specifying the names and addresses of-

8                   (a) new customers; and 9                   (b) existing customers in the case of-

10                  (i) an individual, all transactions where the cumulative transactions in 11 a month amount to N25,000,000.00 or more, or

12                  (ii) a body corporate, all transactions where the cumulative 13 transactions in a month amount to N100,000,000.00 or more.

14                  (2) Every bank, insurance company, stock-broking firm, other 15 financial institution, or any other legal arrangement shall, as may be prescribed 16 by way of notice, rules, regulations, guidelines, or circulars issued by the 17 relevant tax authority prepare and submit returns of-

18                  (a) transactions involving the specified sum;

19                  (b) names, addresses, including foreign addresses, or any other 20 information of its customers connected with those transactions; or

21                  (c) names, addresses, or any other information of new or existing 22 customers.

23                  (3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, for the 24 purpose of obtaining information relative to taxation, the relevant tax authority 25 may give notice to any person including a person engaged in banking business 26 in Nigeria to provide within the time stipulated in the notice, information 27 including the name and address of any person specified in the notice.

28                  (4) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (3) of this section a 29 person engaged in banking business in Nigeria, shall not be required to disclose 30 any additional information about his customer or his bank under this section

1 unless such additional disclosure is required by a notice signed by the Chief 2 Executive Officer of the relevant tax authority.

3 29.-(1) Any person who enters or intends to enter into any Disclosure or 4 transaction or agreement, referred to as a disclosable transaction or tax planning 5 agreement, whose principal purpose is a benefit which enables, or might be 6 expected to enable, such a person to obtain a tax advantage, shall without 7 notice or request, provide to the relevant tax authority, information relating 8 to that disclosable transaction or agreement.

9 (2) The relevant tax authority may make regulations specifying-

10 (a) the information to be provided by a person in relation to a 11 disclosable transaction or agreement;

12 (b) the form and manner of delivery of that information to the 13 relevant tax authority;

14 (c) the period of time within which the information referred to in 15 subsection (1) of this section shall be provided to the relevant tax authority; 16 and

17 (d) administrative penalties for non-disclosure, false disclosure, 18 incomplete disclosure or late disclosure.

19 (3) In this section -

20 "tax advantage" means-

21 (a) a relief or increased relief from tax;

22 (b) repayment or increased repayment of tax;

23 (c) avoidance or reduction of a charge to tax or an assessment to 24 tax;

25 (d) avoidance of a possible assessment to tax;

26 (e) deferral of a payment of tax or advancement of a repayment of 27 tax; or

28 (f) avoidance of an obligation to deduct or account for tax;

29 "transaction" includes- course of action, agreement, scheme or 30 arrangement.

Books of Account

1                   30.-(1) Every person, including a company granted exemption from 2 incorporation, shall, whether or not the person is liable to pay tax, maintain 3 books or records of accounts.

4                   (2) The books or records of accounts shall contain sufficient 5 information or data of all relevant transactions for the ascertainment of the 6 person's tax liability.

7                   (3) The books and records required to be maintained under subsection 8 (1) of this section shall be in English language and shall, for the purpose of tax, 9 be consistent with the format that may be prescribed by the relevant tax 10 authority.

11                   (4) Where the record is maintained in a language other than the 12 English language, the person shall, on demand by the tax authority, produce, at 13 its own expense, a translation in English language, which shall be certified by a 14 sworn translator.

15                   (5) Any book or record required to be kept under this section shall be 16 kept for a period not less than six years after the year of assessment in which the 17 income relates.

Returns deemed to be furnished by an authorised person

18                   31. A return, statement or form furnished under this Act by or on 19 behalf of any person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been furnished by 20 that person or by the representative of the person, unless the contrary is proved, 21 and any person signing such return, statement or form shall be deemed to be 22 duly authorised and cognisant of all matters contained in the return, statement 23 or form.

Accreditation of tax agents

24                   32.-(1) For the purpose of compliance with this Act or any other law, a 25 taxpayer may either represent itself or be represented by a tax agent accredited 26 by the relevant tax authority.

27                   (2) The requirements for accreditation shall be set out by the relevant 28 tax authority.

29                   (3) No return shall be deemed as duly filed except filed by the 30 taxpayer or an accredited tax agent.

1 (4) Tax returns shall be accompanied by a declaration or attestation
2 that the information supplied is true and correct.

3 PART II - ASSESSMENT AND COMPLIANCE

4 33.-(1) Every taxable person shall, on or before the due date, Self-Assessment of tax payable 5 submit a self-assessment tax return with the relevant tax authority in 6 accordance with the relevant provisions of this Act.

7 (2) A taxable person who has submitted a self-assessment return in 8 the prescribed form for a reporting period is deemed to have made an 9 assessment of the amount of tax payable, including a negative or nil amount, 10 for the reporting period to which the return relates.

11 (3) A tax return in the approved form completed and submitted 12 electronically by a taxable person is a self-assessment notwithstanding that-

13 (a) the form contains pre-entered information supplied by the tax 14 authority; and

15 (b) an estimate of the tax payable is computed electronically as 16 information is being entered into the form.

17 (4) Where a taxable person has delivered a tax return, under 18 subsection (1) of this section, the relevant tax authority may-

19 (a) accept the tax return without making an additional assessment;

20 (b) accept the tax return and make additional assessment; or

21 (c) reject the tax return and, to the best of its judgement, determine 22 the amount of the tax due from the taxable person, and make an assessment 23 accordingly.

24 (5) Where the taxable person fails to declare the true and correct
25 amount of income or tax payable in its self-assessed tax returns, the taxable 26 person is liable to pay any outstanding tax from the due date of the returns.

27 (6) The outstanding tax shall be subject to penalty and interest, in 28 accordance with the provisions of this Act or other relevant tax law from the 29 date the return becomes due.

Administrative
assessment

1           34.-(1) Where a taxable person has not delivered a tax return as 2 provided under this Act, and the relevant tax authority is of the opinion that 3 such taxable person is liable to pay tax, it may, to the best of its judgement, 4 determine the amount of the tax due from the taxable person and make an 5 assessment accordingly.

6           (2) The assessment issued under subsection (1) of this section shall 7 not affect the imposition of any other liability specified in this Act or any other 8 law, incurred by the taxable person by reason of its failure or neglect to deliver a 9 return.

10          (3) The relevant tax authority may prescribe the rules, guidelines and 11 procedures for the issuance of administrative assessment under this section.

12          (4) The relevant tax authority may make an assessment upon a taxable 13 person for any year before the expiration of the time within which it is required 14 to deliver a return or to give notice under the provisions of this Act, if the 15 relevant tax authority considers such assessment to be in jeopardy.

Additional assessments

16          35.-(1) Where the relevant tax authority discovers or is of the opinion, 17 at any time, that any taxable person liable to tax has not been assessed or has 18 been assessed at an amount less than that which ought to have been charged, the 19 relevant tax authority may, within six years of an assessment, assess the taxable 20 person at such amount or additional amount, as ought to have been charged.

21          (2) The six-year limitation period stipulated in subsection (1) of this 22 section shall not preclude the relevant tax authority from continuing with a tax 23 audit and for raising additional assessment where the tax audit commenced 24 before the expiration of the six-year limit.

25          (3) The provisions of this Act as to the notice of assessment, appeal 26 and other proceedings shall apply to such assessment or additional assessment 27 and to the tax charged.

28          (4) Notwithstanding the time limit specified in subsection (1) of this 29 section, where there is a deliberate misstatement by a taxable person in 30 connection with any tax imposed under the Nigeria Tax Act or any other tax

1 law, the relevant tax authority may at any time and as often as may be 2 necessary, assess the taxable person at such amount or additional amount as 3 may be necessary for the purpose of making good any loss of tax attributable 4 to the deliberate misstatement.

5 (5) All relevant facts shall be considered in the computation of the 6 amount or additional amount of tax that should have been charged under 7 subsection (1) of this section, even where such facts were not known when a 8 prior assessment or additional assessment was made for the taxable person 9 in the same year.

10 36.-(1) Assessments of tax in upstream petroleum operations shall 11 be made in a form and in such manner as the Service shall prescribe and shall 12 contain the-

Making of assessment in upstream petroleum
operations

13 (a) name and address of the company assessed to tax or of the 14 person in whose name a company has been assessed to tax, provided that the 15 name of the represented company is indicated; and 16 (b) particular accounting period and the amount of the chargeable 17 profits and chargeable tax for that period, in the case of each company for 18 each of its accounting periods.

19 (2) Where an assessment is to be amended or revised, a form of an 20 amended or revised assessment shall be made in a manner similar to that in 21 which the original of that assessment was made under subsection (1) of this 22 section showing the amended or revised amount of the chargeable profits 23 and chargeable tax.

24 (3) A copy of each self-assessment, and of each amended or revised 25 assessment shall be filed in a list which shall constitute the assessment list 26 for the purpose of this Act.

27 37.-(1) Where a business produces either no assessable profit or an 28 assessable profit which is less than expected from that business or the true 29 amount of the assessable profit cannot be readily ascertained, the relevant 30 tax authority may, in the case of-

Deemed profit assessment on income assessment

1 (a) a resident, assess and charge that taxable person on such fair and 2 reasonable percentage of the gross income from the trade or business as the 3 relevant tax authority may determine; or 4 (b) a non-resident, the profits shall be any amount resulting from 5 applying the profit margin of the person to the turnover generated from 6 Nigeria.

7 (2) For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section "profit margin" 8 shall be the proportion of the Earnings Before Interest and Tax ("EBIT") to 9 income or revenue in the published audited financial statement of the business, 10 and in the case of persons that are not required to publish financial statements, 11 the profit margin as may be ascertained by the relevant tax authority from 12 financial statements of comparative companies.

Currency of assessment and payment

13 38.-(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, tax may be 14 assessed in the currency of transaction.

15 (2) Tax, including royalty, assessed in a currency other than the 16 Nigerian Naira may be paid in that currency, or the Nigerian Naira at the 17 prevailing exchange rate in the official foreign exchange market.

Service of notice of assessment

18 39. The relevant tax authority shall cause to be served on, or sent by 19 registered post, courier service or electronic means to each taxable person, or 20 person in whose name a taxable person is chargeable, a notice of assessment in 21 respect of any tax charged including the place at which payment should be 22 made, and setting out the rights of that person as contained in sections 40 and 41
23 of this Act.

Revision of assessment in case of objection

24 40.-(1) Where a taxable person disputes a tax assessment, the taxable 25 person may, by a written notice of objection delivered in person, by courier 26 service or via electronic means, apply to the relevant tax authority for the 27 revision and amendment of the assessment made upon it.

28 (2) An application under subsection (1) of this section shall only be 29 valid if it-

30 (a) is delivered to the relevant tax authority within 30 days from the

- 1 date of service of the disputed notice of assessment; and
- 2 (b) contains the grounds of objection to the assessment, that is the-
- 3 (i) specific issues disputed or errors observed with their monetary
- 4 values,
- 5 (ii) amendment required to be made so as to resolve the dispute or
- 6 correct the error,
- 7 (iii) justification for the amendments,
- 8 (iv) amount of assessable and total profits, income or value of
- 9 transactions admitted by the taxable person for the relevant reporting period,
- 10 and
- 11 (v) amount of tax admitted by the taxable person or that no amount
- 12 of tax is admitted as payable.
- 13 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this
- 14 section, the relevant tax authority may, for any satisfactory and good cause
- 15 shown, extend the time for making the application referred to in subsection
- 16 (1) of this section to such reasonable time in the particular circumstances.
- 17 (4) Upon receipt of the notice of objection referred to in
- 18 subsection(1) of this section, the relevant tax authority may-
- 19 (a) require the taxable person to furnish such particulars as it may
- 20 deem necessary and to produce all books or other documents relating to the
- 21 profits, income or transactions of the taxable person; and
- 22 (b) summon any person to give evidence in respect of the
- 23 assessment to appear for examination before an authorised officer of the
- 24 relevant tax authority or make a declaration on oath in respect of the
- 25 assessment.
- 26 (5) Where the taxable person and the relevant tax authority agree as
- 27 to the amount of tax to be assessed, the disputed assessment shall be
- 28 amended, and a revised notice of the tax payable shall be served upon the
- 29 taxable person.
- 30 (6) The relevant tax authority shall respond to the objection notice

1 within 90 days otherwise the objection of the taxpayer shall be upheld.

2 (7) Where the relevant tax authority considers the notice of objection 3 submitted by the taxable person as invalid, or where the taxable person and the 4 relevant tax authority do not agree as to the amount of tax to be assessed, the 5 taxpayer may exercise the right of appeal.

Errors and defects in assessment
and notice

6 41.-(1) An assessment, notice, warrant or other proceeding purporting 7 to be made in accordance with this Act shall not be invalidated for want of form 8 or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect or omission, if the-

9 (a) substance and effect of the assessment is in conformity with the 10 provisions of this Act; and 11 (b) company assessed or intended to be assessed or affected is 12 designated according to common intent and understanding.

13 (2) An assessment shall not be invalidated or affected by reason of-

14 (a) a mistake as to the-15 (i) name of a company liable or of a person in whose name a company 16 is assessed,

17 (ii) the description of any profits, or

18 (iii) amount of the tax charged;

19 (b) any variance between the assessment and the notice, if in cases of 20 assessment, the notice-

21 (i) is duly served on the company intended to be assessed or on the 22 person in whose name the assessment was to be made, and

23 (ii) contains, in substance and effect, the particulars on which the 24 assessment is made.

Assessment to be final and conclusive

25 42.-(1) Where-

26 (a) no valid objection or appeal has been lodged within the time 27 stipulated under this Act, against an assessment as regards the amount of the 28 total income or profits assessed;

29 (b) the amount of the total income or profits has been agreed to under 30 section 40(5) of this Act;

1 (c) the amount of such total profits has been determined on 2 objection or revised under the provision of section 40(5) of this Act; or

3 (d) the assessment as made, has been agreed to, revised or 4 determined on appeal;

5 such assessment shall be final and conclusive for all purposes of this Act as 6 regards the amount of such total profits.

7 (2) Where the full amount of tax in respect of any final and 8 conclusive assessment is not paid within the period prescribed in this Act, 9 the provisions relating to the recovery of tax, and to any penalty under 10 sections 64 and 66 of this Act, shall apply to the collection and recovery.

11 (3) The provision of subsection (2) of this section shall be subject 12 only to the set-off of the amount of any tax repayable under any claim, made 13 under the relevant provisions of this Act which has been agreed to by the 14 relevant tax authority or determined on any appeal against a refusal to admit 15 any such claim.

16 (4) The provisions of section 40 of this Act shall not prevent the tax 17 authority from making any assessment or additional assessment for any year 18 which does not involve re-opening any issue on the same facts, which has 19 been determined for that year of assessment under section 40(5) of this Act 20 by agreement or on appeal.

21 43.-(1) The relevant tax authority shall maintain assessment lists of 22 taxable persons assessed to tax.

Lists of taxable persons assessed

23 (2) The assessment lists shall contain-

24 (a) the names and addresses of the taxable persons assessed to tax;

25 (b) the name and address of any person in whose name any such 26 taxable person is chargeable;

27 (c) the amount of the total profits of each person;

28 (d) the amount of tax payable by the person; and 29 (e) such other particulars as may be determined by the tax 30 authority.

1 (3) Where complete copies of all notices of assessment and all notices 2 amending assessments are filed in the offices of the tax authority, they shall 3 constitute the assessment lists for the purpose of this Act.

Manager, etc.
to be answerable

4 44. Any principal officer or manager of a company shall be 5 answerable for doing all such acts, matters and things as are required to be done 6 by virtue of this Act for the assessment of the company and payment of the tax.

Artificial transactions, etc.

7 45.-(1) Where a relevant tax authority is of the opinion that any 8 disposition is not in fact given effect to or that any transaction which reduces or 9 would reduce the amount of any tax payable is artificial or fictitious, it may 10 disregard any such disposition or direct that such adjustments be made, as 11 regards liability to tax, as it considers appropriate so as to counteract the 12 reduction of liability to tax affected, or reduction which would be affected by 13 the transaction and any taxable person concerned shall be assessed 14 accordingly.

15 (2) For the purpose of this section, transactions between persons who 16 are connected in accordance with section 193 of the Nigeria Tax Act shall be 17 deemed to be artificial or fictitious if in the opinion of the relevant tax authority 18 those transactions have not been made on terms which might fairly have been 19 expected to have been made by persons engaged in the same or similar 20 activities dealing with one another at arm's length.

21 (3) A person in respect of which any direction is made under this 22 section shall have a right of appeal as if such direction were an assessment 23 under this Act.

24 (4) The relevant tax authority may issue guidelines or regulations for 25 the purpose of specifying rules for the taxation of connected persons, 26 transactions that are not at arm's length, or for the purpose of implementing

PART III - PAYMENT AND REFUND OF TAX

Payment of tax

2                   48.-(1) Subject to section 11 of this Act and without prejudice to any 3 other provision of this Act, every person shall make payment of tax due on or 4 before the due date of filing in one lump sum or in instalments, provided that 5 the final instalment shall be paid on or before the due date of filing.

6                   (2) Tax charged by any assessment which is not or has not been the 7 subject of an objection or appeal shall be payable, after the deduction of any 8 amount to be set-off for the purposes of collection under any provision of this 9 Act, or any amount deposited against the tax, at the place stated in the notice of 10 assessment within 30 days of service of such notice upon the taxable person, 11 provided that the relevant tax authority, in its discretion, may extend the time 12 within which payment is to be made.

13                   (3) Subject to the provisions of section 11 of this Act collection of tax 14 in any case where notice of an objection or appeal has been given by the taxable 15 person shall remain in abeyance until such objection or appeal is determined, 16 provided that the taxable person shall pay the tax which is not the subject of an 17 objection or appeal.

18                   (4) Upon the determination of an objection or appeal, the relevant tax 19 authority shall serve the taxable person, a notice of the tax payable as so 20 determined, and that tax shall be payable within 30 days of the date of service of 21 such notice.

22                   (5) Any balance of tax unpaid as at the due date shall attract interest 23 and penalties as provided in this Act or any other relevant law.

24                   (6) Where the relevant tax authority grants a taxable person an 25 extension of the period for the payment of a tax and the person fails to make the 26 payment within that period of extension, penalty and interest shall accrue from 27 the due date of payment of the tax as if the extension was never granted.

28                   (7) Where there is no objection or appeal, the relevant tax authority 29 may proceed to enforce the recovery of the tax payable in accordance with the 30 provisions of this Act.

1                   49.-(1) Without prejudice to section 16 of this Act, the tax due for 2 any accounting period shall be payable in equal monthly instalments
3 together with a final instalment as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

4                   (2) The first monthly payment shall be due and payable not later 5 than the third month of the accounting period and shall be in an amount 6 equal to one-twelfth or where the accounting period is less than a year, in an 7 amount of equal monthly proportions of the amount of tax estimated to be 8 chargeable for such accounting period in accordance with this Act.

9                   (3) Each of the remainder of monthly payments to be made 10 subsequent to the payment under subsection (2) of this section shall be-

11                   (a) due and payable not later than the last day of the month under 12 consideration; and

13                   (b) in an amount equal to the amount of tax estimated to be 14 chargeable for such period by reference to the latest returns submitted by the 15 company in accordance with section 16 of this Act less so much as has 16 already been paid for such accounting period divided by the number of the 17 monthly payments remaining to be made in respect of such accounting 18 period.

19                   (4) A final instalment of tax shall be due and payable on or before 20 the due date of filing of the self-assessment of tax for such accounting period 21 and shall be the amount of the tax assessed for that accounting period less so 22 much as has already been paid under subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

23                   (5) Any instalments on account of tax estimated to be chargeable 24 shall be treated as tax charged and assessed for the purpose of sections 64
25 and 53 of this Act.

26                   (6) This section covers income tax on gas income under part II of 27 chapter three of the Nigeria Tax Act.

28                   50.-(1) Subject to section 192(3) of the Nigeria Tax Act, where any 29 payment is made to a person, the person making the payment shall, at the 16 individual after deduction of tax at source, shall not be charged to further tax.

17 (6) Income tax chargeable on an employee whether or not the 18 assessment has been made, shall be deducted from any emolument payable, or 19 from any payment made on account of the emolument, by the employer to the 20 employee.

21 (7) In arriving at the amount of income tax to be deducted from any 22 payment of or on account of the emolument to an employee, the employer shall 23 ensure that the aggregate amount of all the deductions made during a year of 24 assessment shall equal the income tax chargeable on the employee in respect of 25 its emoluments for that year.

26 (8) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (6) of this section, a non-27 resident company that provides technical, consulting, professional or 28 management services to a labelled startup shall be subjected to a 5% deduction 29 on income derived from the provision of such services, which shall be the final 30 tax to be paid by such non-resident company.

1 (9) For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this section, 2 regulations relating to deduction of tax at source shall apply.

8 52.-(1) Where a company is being wound up, the liquidator of the 9 company shall not distribute any of the assets of the company to the 10 shareholders unless provision has been made for the payment in full of any 11 tax which may be found payable by the company, including any tax 12 deductions made by the company under any law in force in any part of 13 Nigeria. Company wound up

14 (2) Where tax is not paid in accordance with the provision of this 15 section or any other law, the liquidator shall be personally liable.

16 53. Where a company which is or was engaged in petroleum 17 operations transfers a substantial part of its assets to any person without 18 having paid any tax, assessed or chargeable upon the company, for any 19 accounting period ending prior to such transfer and in the opinion of the 20 service one reason for such transfer by the company was to avoid payment of 21 such tax then that tax as charged upon the company may be sued for and 22 recovered from that person in a manner similar to a suit for any other tax 23 under section 66 of this Act. Avoidance by transfer by companies engaged in petroleum

15 request to the Service in the prescribed form.

16 (2) The request referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be 17 made not later than 12 months after the transaction giving rise to the refund, 18 otherwise it shall lapse.

19 (3) Where a valid request is received from a taxable person, the 20 Service shall not later than 30 days of the receipt of that request, refund the tax 21 to the taxable person or the amount shall be eligible for set-off against any tax 22 liability of the taxpayer.

23 PART IV - ENFORCEMENT

Call for returns,
books, documents
and information

24 56.-(1) For the purpose of obtaining information in respect of the tax 25 liability of a taxable person or for performing any function conferred on the 26 relevant tax authority by this Act or any other tax law, the relevant tax authority 27 may give notice or further notice to any taxable person to-

28 (a) complete and deliver to the tax authority any return specified in 29 such notice or further notice, whether or not the person is liable to pay tax, and

1 whether or not a return had been previously filed under this Act for a year of 2 assessment;

3 (b) appear personally before an officer of the tax authority for 4 examination with respect to a matter to which such notice or further notice 5 relates;

6 (c) produce or cause to be produced for examination, books, 7 documents, records, or information relating to any assets, at the place and 8 time stated in the notice or further notice, which time may be from day-to-9 day, or for such period as the tax authority may deem necessary;

10 (d) provide orally or in writing, any information specified in such 11 notice or further notice; and 12 (e) grant the tax authority access to records, data or information 13 stored or residing in computers or other electronic devices, including 14 magnetic media or cloud computing facilities maintained, operated, 15 controlled or owned by the individual, company or person.

16 (2) The time specified in the notice or further notice under 17 subsection (1) of this section shall not be less than seven days from the date 18 of service.

19 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act the tax authority 20 shall not be precluded from verifying, by tax audit or investigation, any 21 matter relating to a return or entry in a book, document, accounts, including 22 those stored on a computer, cloud computing facilities, in digital, magnetic, 23 optical or electronic media as may be specified in any guideline by the 24 relevant tax authority.

25 (4) A person may apply in writing to the relevant tax authority for 26 an extension of time within which to comply with the provisions of this 27 section, and other relevant provisions of this Act, provided that the person-

28 (a) makes the application before the expiration of the time 29 stipulated in the notice or further notice; and 30 (b) shows good cause for inability to comply with this provision.

1 (5) If the relevant tax authority is satisfied with the cause shown in 2 the application under subsection (4)b) of this section, it shall, in writing, 3 grant the extension of the time or limit the time as it may consider 4 appropriate.

5 (6) Any return or information delivered under this section shall be 6 accompanied by a declaration or an attestation stating that the information 7 supplied is true and correct.

Power to access lands, building, books and documents

8 57.-(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other enactment or 9 law, an authorised officer of the relevant tax authority shall at all 10 reasonable times have free access to all land, buildings, places, books and 11 documents, in the custody or under the control of a person, public officer, or 12 institution, for the purpose of inspecting the books or documents including 13 those stored or maintained in computers, servers, billing systems or on 14 digital, magnetic, optical or electronic media, and any property, process or 15 matter which the officer considers necessary or relevant for the purpose of 16 collecting any tax under any of the relevant enactments or law.

17 (2) Where the hard copies of any of the books or documents 18 mentioned in subsection (1) of this section are not immediately available 19 because they are stored in a computer, servers, billing system or on digital, 20 magnetic, optical or electronic media, the relevant tax authority shall take 21 immediate possession of such removable media and the related removable 22 equipment or computer used to access the stored documents on the media in 23 order to prevent the accidental or intentional destruction, removal or 24 alteration of records and documents, especially where such may be needed 25 as potential evidence in investigation or criminal proceedings.

26 (3) Where the relevant tax authority is able to obtain in place 27 of taking physical possession of such equipment, computer or storage 28 media under subsection (2) of this section, and the relevant tax authority 29 possesses the ability, equipment and computer software to make exact 30 duplicate copies of all information stored on the computer hard drive and

1 preserve all the information exactly as it is on the original computer, the 2 relevant tax authority shall make such copy and use it as digital evidence 3 during investigation or criminal proceedings.

4 (4) The occupier of a land, building or place that is entered or 5 proposed to be entered by an authorised officer, shall-

6 (a) provide the officer with all reasonable facilities and assistance 7 for the effective exercise of powers under this section; and 8 (b) answer questions relating to the exercise of the powers under 9 this section, orally, or if required by the authorised officer, in writing, or by 10 statutory declaration.

11 (5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the authorised 12 officer shall not enter any private dwelling except with the consent of an 13 occupier or pursuant to an authorisation issued under subsection (6) of this 14 section.

15 (6) A judicial officer upon an application by an officer of the 16 relevant tax authority may authorise the officer by warrant to enter into any 17 premises.

18 (7) Every authorisation issued under subsection (6) of this section 19 shall-

20 (a) be in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule to this Act;

21 (b) be directed to a named officer of the tax authority;

22 (c) be valid for a period of three months from the date of its issue or 23 such lesser period as the judicial officer considers appropriate;

24 (d) state its period of validity, or the date on which it expires; and 25 (e) be renewable by the judicial officer on application.

26 (8) An officer exercising the power of entry conferred by an 27 authorisation issued under subsection (6) of this section shall produce the 28 written authorisation and evidence of identity-

29 (a) on first entering the private dwelling; and 30 (b) whenever subsequently reasonably required to do so.

Power to remove books and
documents

1                   58.-(1) An officer of the relevant tax authority authorised by the Chief 2 Executive Officer, may remove books or documents or any item accessed 3 under section 57 of this Act to make copies.

4                   (2) Any copy of the books or documents removed shall be made, and 5 the books or documents returned as soon as practicable.

6                   (3) A copy of a book or document or digital evidence certified by or on 7 behalf of the Chief Executive Officer of the relevant tax authority is admissible 8 in evidence in court as if it were the original.

9                   (4) The owner of a book or document or any item that is removed 10 under this section is entitled to inspect and obtain a copy of the book or 11 document at the expense of the owner, at the premises to which the book or 12 document is moved to-

13                   (a) at the time the book or document is moved to the premises; and 14                   (b) at reasonable times subsequently.

15                   (5) A person shall bear any cost incurred for the purpose of removing 16 any book, information, document or item under subsection (1) of this section.

Power of substitution

17                   59.-(1) The relevant tax authority may by notice in writing appoint 18 any person to be the agent of a taxable person where -

19                   (a) any tax has become due and payable and the taxable person has 20 refused or failed to pay; or

21                   (b) the agent appointed is in possession or is expected to be in 22 possession of the money, funds or assets of the taxable person.

23                   (2) The agent appointed under subsection (1) of this section, shall be 24 required to pay any tax payable by the taxable person from any money, funds or 25 asset of the person which may be held by the agent of the person.

26                   (3) Where the agent referred to in subsection (2) of this section 27 defaults, all such enforcement and recovery actions, including the power to 28 distraint the money, funds or asset of the person shall apply as if the agent so 29 appointed were originally liable.

30                   (4) For the purpose of this section, the relevant tax authority may

1 require any person to give information as to money, funds or other assets 2 which may be held for, or due to any person.

3 (5) The provisions of this Act with respect to objections and 4 appeals shall apply to any notice given under this section as if such notice 5 were an assessment or demand notice.

6 60.-(1) Where an assessment has become final and conclusive and 7 a demand notice has been served upon a person or upon the person in whose 8 name that person is chargeable and the payment of the tax is not made within 9 the time specified by the demand notice, the relevant tax authority may in the 10 prescribed form, for the purpose of enforcing payment of the tax due-

17 contained in the Third Schedule to this Act and such authority shall be 18 sufficient warrant and authority to levy by distrain the amount of any tax 19 due.

20 (3) For the purpose of levying any distrain under this section, any 21 officer duly authorised by the relevant tax authority may execute any 22 warrant of distrain, and if necessary, break open any building or place in the 23 day time for the purpose of levying such distrain, and the relevant tax 24 authority may call for police assistance and the police shall, when so 25 required aid and assist in the execution of any warrant of distrain and in 26 levying the distrain.

27 (4) Assets distrained under this section may, at the cost of that 28 person, be kept for 14 days and at the end of that time if the amount due in 29 respect of the tax, cost and charges of any incidental to the distrain are not 30 paid, they may, subject to subsection (6) of this section, be sold.

1 (5) Where there is a sale in accordance with the provisions of 2 subsection (4) of this section, a part of the proceeds of such sale, shall, in the 3 first instance, be used to pay the cost of keeping and all expenses incidental to 4 the sale, of the asset so distrained thereafter, the amount due in respect of the tax 5 shall be paid.

6 (6) The balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be refunded to that 7 person with or without a demand made within 90 days of the date of the sale.

8 (7) The provision of this section shall not be construed to authorise the 9 sale of any immovable property without an order of a High Court or as 10 prescribed by the rules of court.

11 (8) In exercise of the powers of distrain conferred by this section, the 12 person to whom the authority is granted under subsection (3) of this section 13 may distrain all assets, goods, chattels and effects belonging to the debtor 14 wherever the same may be found.

or lease

13 63.-(1) Notwithstanding the provision of any other law, the tax 14 authority shall have the power to investigate or cause investigation to be 15 conducted to ascertain any violation of any tax law, whether or not such 16 violation has been reported to the relevant tax authority.

Tax Investigation

17 (2) The relevant tax authority may employ Special Purpose Tax 18 Officers for the purpose of subsection (1) of this section to carry out 19 investigation of any offence under this Act and may seek the assistance of 20 any relevant law enforcement agency.

21 (3) In conducting an investigation under subsection (1) of this 22 section, the relevant tax authority may cause investigation to be conducted 23 into the properties of any taxable person where it appears to the relevant tax 24 authority that the lifestyle of the person and extent of the properties are not 25 justified by his source of income or in line with the tax declaration or 26 compliance.

27 (4) Where an investigation under this section reveals the 28 commission of any offence or an attempt to commit any offence, the relevant 29 tax authority shall, pursuant to section 135 of this Act, undertake the 30 prosecution of the offences.

3 CHAPTER FIVE

4 MISCELLANEOUS

Power to
compound offences

5 134.-(1) The relevant tax authority may compound any offence under 6 this Act by accepting a sum of money not exceeding the tax liability and 7 maximum fine specified for the offence.

8 (2) The relevant tax authority shall issue an official receipt for any 9 money received under subsection (1) of this section.

10 (3) Any offence compounded under subsection (1) of this section does 11 not constitute conviction.

prosecute

12 135.-(1) The relevant tax authority shall have powers to employ its 13 own legal officers who shall have powers to prosecute any of the offences
14 under this Act subject to the powers of the Attorney-General of the Federation 15 or State in any court in Nigeria.

16 (2) Notwithstanding any administrative penalty or interest imposed 17 under this Act or any other tax law, the relevant tax authority shall have powers 18 to prosecute any person for an offence specified under the relevant provisions 19 of this Act.

Place of an offence

20 136. An offence under this Act shall be deemed to occur in the place 21 where the taxable person is registered or resident or at such other place as the 22 relevant tax authority may decide.

Settlement of dispute

23 137.-(1) Without prejudice to any provision of this Act or any other 24 law, the relevant tax authority and the taxable person may initiate to resolve any 25 tax matters amicably at any stage of the dispute subject to such terms and 26 conditions as may be prescribed under this Act or any other law.

27 (2) The relevant tax authority may settle disputes in whole or in part, 28 where-

29 (a) such settlement will be in the interest of public revenue or public 30 policy;

1 (b) due consideration is given to the cost of litigation in comparison 2 to the possible benefits;

3 (c) a participant or a group of participants in a tax arrangement has 4 accepted the position of the relevant tax authority in the dispute, in which 5 case the settlement may be negotiated in a manner required to adjust the tax 6 arrangements or disposition; or

7 (d) under a whistleblowing arrangement, the settlement will 8 facilitate full disclosure of undisclosed tax planning or evasion schemes 9 which may lead to significant recovery of tax revenue.

10 (3) Settlement of dispute shall not be considered where-

11 (a) the action by the taxable person concerned leading to the 12 'dispute' constitutes intentional tax evasion or fraud inimical to the 13 government revenue;

14 (b) it is in the public interest to have judicial clarification of the 15 issue and the case will significantly promote taxpayer compliance with the 16 relevant tax law.

17 (4) The procedure for settlement of disputes shall be as follows-

18 (a) a person participating in a settlement procedure shall disclose 19 all relevant facts during the discussion phase of the process of settling a 20 dispute and such facts disclosed only for the purpose of settlement shall be 21 confidential;

22 (b) a dispute settled in whole or in part shall be evidenced by an 23 agreement in writing between the parties in the prescribed format as may be 24 determined by the relevant tax authority and must include details on-

25 (i) how each particular issue is settled,

26 (ii) relevant undertakings by the parties,

27 (iii) treatment of the issue in future years,

28 (iv) withdrawal of objections and appeals, and 29 (v) arrangements for payment;

1 (c) the agreement shall be signed by authorised officers of both 2 parties.

3 (5) Finality of settlement agreement is where the-

4 (a) settlement agreement represents the final agreed position between 5 the parties, and it is a full and final settlement of all or specified aspects of the 6 dispute in question between the parties; and 7 (b) relevant tax authority shall enforce collection of the settlement 8 amount under the collection provisions of this Act as a debt due to the relevant 9 tax authority.

Information and documents to be confidential

10 138. Without prejudice to the provisions of any other Act concerning 11 data privacy, data protection, and unlawful disclosure of taxpayer information, 12 taxpayers' information shall be confidential.

Official secrecy and confidentiality

13 139.-(1) A person in an official duty or being employed for the 14 administration of this Act or otherwise, that has access to taxpayer information 15 shall regard and deal with such information as secret and confidential.

16 (2) A person who is in possession or control of, any document, 17 information or tax return of any taxable person shall not communicate, expose 18 or reveal such document, information or tax return to any third party without 19 authorisation or in accordance with extant laws.

20 (3) A person who administers this Act shall not be required to produce 21 any return, document or assessment, or to divulge or communicate any 22 information that comes into his possession in the performance of his duties 23 except as may be necessary in order to institute a prosecution, or in the course 24 of a prosecution for any offence committed in relation to any tax in Nigeria.

25 (4) Where under any law in force in respect of a double taxation treaty 26 with any country, provision is made for the allowance of relief from income tax 27 in respect of the payment of income tax in Nigeria, the obligation as to secrecy 28 imposed by this section shall not prevent the disclosure to the authorised 29 officers of the Government in that country of such facts as may be necessary to 30 enable the proper relief to be given in cases where relief is claimed from the tax

1 in Nigeria or from income tax in that country.

2 (5) Where an agreement or arrangement with any other country, 3 government or relevant tax authority for exchange of information or with 4 respect to relief for double taxation of income or profits includes provisions 5 for the exchange of taxpayer information with that country for the purpose 6 of implementing a tax relief or preventing avoidance of tax, or for such other 7 purposes as may be enshrined in the agreement or arrangement, the 8 obligation as to secrecy imposed by this Act shall not prevent the disclosure 9 of such information to the authorised officers of the Government of such 10 country.

11 140.-(1) The Minister may give the relevant tax authority or its 12 Chief Executive Officer such directives of a general nature or relating 13 generally to matters of policy with regards to the exercise of the functions 14 under this Act or any other tax law as may be considered necessary and the 15 relevant tax authority or its Chief Executive Officer shall comply with the 16 directives or cause them to be complied with.

Powers of the Minister to issue
general directives
and make regulations

17 (2) The Minister shall not give any directive, order or instruction in 18 respect of any particular person which would have the effect of requiring the 19 relevant tax authority to increase or decrease any assessment of tax made or 20 to be made or any relief given or to be given or to defer the collection of any 21 tax or judgement debt due, or which would have the effect of initiating, 22 forbidding the initiation of, withdrawing or altering the normal course of 23 any proceeding whether civil or criminal, relating either to the recovery of 24 any tax or to any offence under this Act or any other tax law.

25 (3) The Minister may, on the advice of the Service or the Joint 26 Revenue Board, make regulations for the carrying out of the provisions of 27 this Act or any other tax law by order published in the Official Gazette to-

28 (a) determine what constitutes the significant economic presence 29 of a company other than a Nigerian company or an individual in accordance 30 with the Nigeria Tax Act;

1 (b) make rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in the conduct 2 of appeals before the Tax Appeal Tribunal;

3 (c) amend, vary or modify the list set out in part IV of chapter eight of 4 Nigeria Tax Act with respect of Value Added Tax; and 5 (d) regulate the administration of excise duties on excisable services 6 in Nigeria.

7 (4) The Board of the relevant tax authority may, with the approval of 8 the Minister or the Governor, make rules and regulations as, in its opinion, are 9 necessary or expedient for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act or any 10 other tax law and for the due administration of its provisions prescribing the-

11 (a) forms for returns and other information required under this Act or 12 any other enactment or law; and 13 (b) procedure for obtaining any information required under this Act or 14 any other enactment or law,

15 provided that a relevant tax authority shall only make regulations to the extent 16 of its power to administer taxes.

Supremacy of this Act

17 141.-(1) This Act shall take precedence over any other laws with 18 regards to the administration, assessment, collection, accounting and 19 enforcement of taxes and levies due to the relevant tiers of Government and if 20 the provisions of any other law are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, 21 the provisions of this Act shall prevail and the provisions of that other law shall, 22 to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

23 (2) Any person or agency of Government that has been imposed with 24 a duty or obligation under this Act or under any other law, for the purpose of 25 giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act or to enable the Nigeria 26 Revenue Service or any other relevant tax authority perform its duties under 27 this Act shall continue to carry out such duty or obligation as prescribed in that 28 law, provided that the duty or obligation is consistent with the provisions of this

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE

[Section 3(2)]

Foreign Employments

1. An individual, not being a person to whom section 3 (1)(a)(iv) of this Act applies, who holds a foreign employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, or who first becomes liable to income tax in Nigeria for that year by reason of his entering that employment during that year, shall be deemed to be resident for that year where the duties are-

(a) wholly performed outside Nigeria, in the territory in which the principal office of his employer is situated on that day or on the day his foreign employment commences, as the case may be; and

(b) performed or exercised in Nigeria for a foreign employer, in the place of residence, and in the absence of such, in the place where the person usually resides.

Nigerian employment

2.-(1) An individual who holds a Nigerian employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, or who first becomes liable to income tax in Nigeria for that year by reason of his entering that employment during that year, shall be deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which he has a place or principal place of residence on that day or, as the case may be, on the day on which he enters upon the full duties of that employment in Nigeria.

(2) Where the individual in paragraph 1 above is on leave from a Nigerian employment on 1st January in a year of assessment, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year by reference to his place or principal place of residence immediately before his leave began.

Other employments

3.-(1) An employee whose remuneration is subject to income tax in

1 Nigeria for a year of assessment, but who has no place or principal place of 2 residence in the territory of a State in Nigeria for that year under the provisions 3 of paragraphs 2 of this Schedule, shall be deemed to hold a foreign 4 employment, and if he has no territory of residence in a State for that year under 5 the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Schedule, shall be deemed to be a person 6 to whom section 3 (1)(a)(iv) of this Act applies.

7 (2) This paragraph shall apply to an employee who is subject to 8 income tax in Nigeria for a year of assessment, but whose place of residence is 9 in the Exclusive Economic Zone of Nigeria or territorial waters of Nigeria 10 beyond the littoral States and has no principal place of residence in any of the 11 littoral States.

12 Partnership

13 4. The "principal place of residence" in relation to an individual who 14 is a partner in a Nigerian partnership shall, where the individual is-

15 (a) engaged in the performance or exercise of the duty of the 16 partnership, be the territory in Nigeria of the office where he performs or 17 exercises the duty of the partnership;

18 (b) a dormant partner in the partnership, be the territory in Nigeria 19 which he usually resides; and 20 (c) a dormant partner that does not reside in a territory in Nigeria, be 21 deemed to be a person to whom section 3 (1)(a)(iv) of this Act refers.

22 Pensions

23 5.-(1) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in 24 Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a pension, and who had a 25 place or principal place of residence on that day shall be deemed to be resident 26 for that year in the territory in which that place or principal place of residence 27 was situated on that day.

28 (2) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in 29 Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a pension, and who had no 30 place of residence on that day, shall be deemed to be resident for that year, if the

1 pension is-

2 (a) a Nigerian pension wholly payable by the Government of a 3 territory, not being a Nigerian pension in respect of which section 3 4 (1)(a)(iv) of this Act applies, in that territory;

5 (b) not a Nigerian pension, in the territory in which the principal 6 office in Nigeria of the pension fund or other person authorising payment of 7 the pension is situated.

8 (3) An individual whose only source of earned income arising in 9 Nigeria on 1st January in a year of assessment was a Nigerian pension, and 10 who had no place of residence on that day shall, if the pension is payable by 11 more than one government, or payable by a person other than a government 12 or if there are two or more pensions arising in different territories to the 13 individual on that day, be subject to section 3(1)(a)(iv) of this Act.

14 Other earned income

15 6. An individual, other than a corporation sole or body of 16 individuals, who has a source of earned income in Nigeria for a year of 17 assessment, other than an employment or a pension, shall be deemed to be 18 resident for that year in the territory in which he had a place or principal 19 place of residence on 1st January in that year provided that-

20 (a) where the source of the income is first acquired by the 21 individual during the year of assessment, and he had no place or principal 22 place of residence on the first day of that year, he shall be deemed to be 23 resident for that year in the territory where he first establishes a place of 24 residence during that year; and 25 (b) in any other case where the individual had no place or principal 26 place of residence, he shall be deemed to be resident for that year in any 27 territory from which his earned income arising in Nigeria is derived, or the 28 territory from which any part of the earned income is derived, if the income 29 is derived from more than one territory.

1 Unearned Income

2 7. An individual, other than a corporation sole or body of individuals, 3 who has no source of earned income in Nigeria for a year of assessment but 4 who has one or more source of unearned income in Nigeria for that year shall be 5 deemed to be resident for that year in the territory in which he has a place or 6 principal place of residence on 1st January of that year, provided that where-

7 (a) all the unearned income of the individual for that year arises in one 8 territory, and he has no place of residence on that day, he shall be deemed to be 9 resident for that year in that territory;

10 (b) the unearned income of the individual arises for that year in more 11 than one territory, and he has no place of residence on that day, he shall be 12 deemed to be resident for that year in the territory from which any part of the 13 unearned income arises.

14 Application

15 8.-(1) Where the territory of residence of an individual for a year of 16 assessment may be determined under more than one of the preceding 17 paragraphs of this Schedule, it shall be determined by the first-numbered 18 paragraph which is applicable to his circumstances.

19 (2) Where, by reason of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, or 20 otherwise, a determination of residence of an individual for a year of 21 assessment falls to be revised, and the tax authority that raised an assessment is 22 other than that territory in which the individual is finally determined to be 23 resident for that year, the first-mentioned tax authority shall discharge any 24 assessment made by it on the income of the individual for that year.

25 Corporation sole or body of individuals

26 9. A corporation sole or body of individuals other than a family or 27 community shall be deemed to be resident for a year of assessment in the 28 territory in which its principal office in Nigeria is situated on 1st January in that 29 year or, if it has no office in Nigeria on that day, in a territory in which any part 30 or the whole of its income liable to tax in Nigeria arises for that year.

1 Family income

2 10. Income of a family shall be taxed only by the territory in which 3 the member of that family who customarily receives that income in the first 4 instance in Nigeria usually resides.

5 Trust

6 11. Income of a trustee of any settlements or trusts, or estates or to 7 an executor of any estate of a deceased person, shall be taxed only by the 8 territory in which the settlor or the person creating the trust is resident and to 9 the extent provided in the Sixth Schedule to the Nigeria Tax Act.

10 Interpretation
