S.I. 3, 1986.

1. Citation

These Rules may be cited as the Customary Court of Appeal Rules.

2. Interpretation

In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires-

"appeal" includes an application for leave to appeal;

"appellant" means a party appealing from a judgment or applying for leave in that behalf;

"clerk" means the clerk of the Customary Court of Appeal;

"court clerk" means the clerk of the Customary Court;

"court" means the Customary Court of Appeal;

"record" means the aggregate of papers relating to an appeal proper to be laid before the court on the hearing of the appeal together with all documents resulting from the proceedings thereof;

"respondent"-

(a) in a civil appeal means any party other than the appellant directly affected by the appeal;

(b) in a criminal appeal means the person who undertakes the defence of the judgment appealed against.

3. Registers to be kept

(1) The clerk shall keep-

(a) a Criminal Appeal Register; and

(b) a Civil Appeal Register.

(2) The following particulars shall be entered in the Criminal Appeal Register and the Civil Appeal Register-

(a) the number of the appeal;

(b) the year in which the appeal was lodged;

(c) the names of the appellant and the respondent;

- (d) the place, date and time of hearing of the appeal; and
- (e) orders and awards made.

(3) All documents in a case shall bear the serial number of that case which shall be written at the top of the first page.

(4) In every appeal there shall be recorded in writing and attached to the record of the case the names of the members of the court hearing such an appeal.

4. Dates of hearing

The date, time and place of the sittings of the court shall be determined by the President of the court.

5. Delivery of judgment

The judgment of the court shall be pronounced by the Presiding Officer.

6. Noting an appeal

Any person noting an appeal shall within 30 days of such order or decision-

- (a) deliver his written reasons for an appeal to the court clerk;
- (b) deposit, with the court clerk, in the case of a Civil Appeal such fee as may be prescribed;
- (c) the notice of appeal shall disclose the names and addresses of the appellant and the respondent.

7. Petition to appeal out of time

Any person petitioning the court for leave to appeal out of time shall-

- (a) deliver to the court clerk the written petition setting out the grounds on which he relies for appealing;
- (b) in the case of a civil appeal, deposit, with the court clerk, such fee as may be prescribed, and the petition shall disclose the names and the addresses of the appellant and the respondent.

8. Transmission of petition to appeal

The court clerk shall transmit the petition and a copy of the case record to the clerk of the Customary Court of Appeal.

9. Transmission of court records

(1) Subject to rules 6 and 7 the court clerk shall after an appeal has been noted transmit to the court, a copy of the record of the case and a copy of the grounds of appeal.

(2) The court clerk shall at the same time as he transmits the documents referred to in rule 6 or 7, send to the respondent a copy of the grounds of appeal if the appellant has not done so.

10. Setting down dates of hearing

(1) Subject to rule 4 on receipt of the documents referred to in rules 6 and 7 the clerk of the court shall forthwith set down a date of hearing of the appeal, and shall give due notice of such a date, place and time of hearing to the parties.

(2) If leave to appeal out of time has been granted the procedure for hearing appeals shall be the same as if an appeal had been in time.

11. Prosecution of appeal

If leave to appeal is granted by the court the appellant shall thereafter prosecute his appeal on the date that may be stipulated in the order granting leave or if no date or time is stipulated then on the date of set down in accordance with rule 4.

12. Determination to call witnesses

(1) Immediately on receipt of the documents mentioned in rules 6 and 7 the clerk shall place such documents before the President who shall thereupon read them and inform the clerk whether he will require the attendance of any or all of the witnesses at the hearing of the appeal.

(2) The clerk shall give due notice to the parties informing them of the date, place and time of hearing of the appeal and which, if any, of their witnesses shall be required at the hearing.

13. Default judgment and dismissal of appeal

(1) If an appellant or respondent in an appeal fails to prosecute or defend such appeal, after proper notice of the place, date and time of hearing of the appeal, judgment by default may be granted in such manner as the court deems fit.

(2) If the appellant in a criminal case fails to prosecute an appeal after proper notice of the date, place and time of hearing of such appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed.

14. Procedure on hearing of civil appeals

(1) The hearing of every civil appeal shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure authorized by the customary law of the area from which the appeal originates.

(2) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the court may, in its discretion, grant leave to a party to adduce oral evidence at the hearing of the appeal or proceed by way of re-hearing either in whole or in part.

15. Adjournment

(1) The court may from time to time adjourn the hearing of an appeal for a suitable period provided that in a criminal appeal the adjournment shall not exceed 14 days.

(2) Before adjourning an appeal the court shall inform the parties and the witness who is present of the date to which the case is adjourned.

16. Recording and delivery of judgment

When the court has determined whether the appeal shall be upheld or dismissed it shall record in writing the judgment including the reasons for it. Such judgment shall be signed by the presiding officer of the court who shall deliver it in open court in the presence of the parties.

17. Right of appeal

After judgment or order has been delivered the presiding officer shall inform the party against whom the judgment has been given if he is present of his right to appeal as laid down in section 42 of the Act.

18. Payment of compensation

Any compensation as ordered by the court shall be paid to the court clerk.

19. Witnesses summons

Where the court has ordered any witness to attend to be examined before the court, a summons shall be served upon such witness specifying the time and place at which to attend for such purpose.

20. Witnesses fees

Witnesses who attend before the court under rule 19 shall be paid fees and reimbursements on the same scales as are applicable in a magistrate's court. In criminal appeals payments shall be made by the clerk from public funds and in civil appeals such payments shall be made by the party in whose favour the witnesses are to testify.

21. Enforcement of judgment

The court from which the appeal originates shall, upon receipt of any decree, order, warrant or process directed to it, enter such decree, order, warrant or process in its own records and enforce, execute or serve them as though they were issued by it.
