AND SOUTHERN AFRICAN STATES

NO. 7 OF 1991

PREFERENTIAL TRADE AREA (IMPLEMENTATION) ACT

[Date of assent: 6th September, 1991.]

[Date of commencement: 13th September, 1991.]

An Act of Parliament to provide for giving effect to certain provisions of the Treaty for the establishment of the Preferential Trade Area for Eastern and Southern Africa States and for connected purposes

[Act No. 7 of 1991.]

WHEREAS the Treaty for the establishment of the Preferential Trade Area for the Eastern and Southern African States (which is set out in the Schedule to this Act) was signed on the 21st December, 1981, on behalf of the Governments of the People's Republic of Angola, the Republic of Botswana, the Peoples Republic of the Comoros, the Republic of Djibouti, Socialist Ethiopia, the Republic of Kenya, the Kingdom of Lesotho, the Democratic Republic of Madagascar, the Republic of Malawi, Mauritius, the People's Republic of Mozambique, the Republic of the Seychelles, the Somali Democratic Republic, the Kingdom of Swaziland, the United Republic of Tanzania, the Republic of Uganda, the Republic of Zambia and the Republic of Zimbabwe:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions for giving effect to certain provisions contained in the said Treaty.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya as follows: —

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Preferential Trade Area (Implementation) Act, 1991.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Authority” means the Authority of the Preferential Trade Area established by Article 6 of the Treaty;

“Budget” means the Budget of the Preferential Trade Area referred to in Article 36 of the Treaty;

“Preferential Trade Area” means the Preferential Trade Area for Eastern and Southern African States established by Article 2 of the Treaty;

“Treaty” means the Treaty for the Establishment of Preferential Trade Area for Eastern and Southern African States which is set out in the Schedule to this Act, as from time to time amended under any provisions thereof or otherwise modified.

3. Preferential Trade Area to have capacity of body corporate

(1) The Preferential Trade Area shall, within Kenya, have the capacity of a body corporate with perpetual succession and shall have power to acquire, hold, manage and dispose of land and other property and to sue and be sued in its own name.

(2) The Preferential Trade Area shall have power to perform any of the functions conferred upon it by the Treaty and to do all things (including borrowing) that in the opinion of the Authority are necessary or desirable for the performance of those functions.

(3) Subsection (2) relate only to the capacity of the Preferential Trade Area as a body corporate, and nothing in that subsection shall be construed as authorizing the disregard by the Preferential Trade Area of any law, or as affecting any power of the Preferential Trade Area conferred by any law.

4. Provisions of the Treaty to have force of law

The provisions of the Treaty set out in the Schedule to this Act shall have the force of law in Kenya.

5. Amendments to the Treaty

(1) The provisions amending or repealing and replacing the Treaty shall have the force of law in Kenya.

(2) If the Treaty is amended or modified the Attorney-General shall cause a notice of the amendment or modification and of the date when the amendment or modification comes or is deemed to have come into operation to be published in the Gazette and a copy of the notice to be laid before the National Assembly without delay; and such amendment or modification shall, for the purposes of this Act, come into or be deemed to have come into operation on such date.

(3) The Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Cap. 2) shall not apply to the interpretation of the provisions of the Treaty.

6. Adaptation of laws

The Attorney-General may, by order published in the Gazette, from time to time after the commencement of this Act, make such amendment to any Act as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for the bringing of the Act into conformity with the provisions of the Treaty or otherwise for giving effect to or enabling effect to be given to those provisions.

7. Financial provisions

(1) There shall be charged and paid out of the Consolidated Fund, without further appropriation, all payments required to be made from time to time by the Government to the Budget under the terms of the Treaty.

(2) For the purposes of providing any sums required for making payment under this section, the Minister for the time being responsible for finance may, on behalf of the Government, make such arrangements as are necessary, or raise loans by the creation and issue of securities bearing such rate of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption or otherwise as he thinks fit, and the principal and interest of those securities and charges and expenses incurred in the connection with their issue shall be charged on and issued out of the Consolidated Fund.

(3) Moneys received by the Government under the Treaty or raised under subsection (2), shall be paid and form part of the Consolidated Fund and shall be available in any manner in which the Consolidated Fund is available.

8. Powers of the Authority

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the Authority shall have power to make decisions with respect to—

Preferential Trade Area (Implementation)

- (a) the gradual reduction and eventual elimination of customs duties and non-tariff barriers to trade conducted among member states and the evolution of a common external tariff in respect of goods imported from countries with a view to the eventual establishment of a common market among member States;
 - (b) co-operation in particular fields relating to transport and communications, industrial development, agricultural development, trade documents and procedures, standardization and quality control of goods; and
 - (c) co-operation in other fields taken in common to further the aim of the Preferential Trade Area and the implementation of the provisions of the Treaty.

9. The Tribunal

The procedure for the settlement of the disputes made Article 40 of the Treaty by the Tribunal established by Article 10 of the Treaty shall, in relation to summoning of witnesses and the conduct of proceedings of the Tribunal, have the force of law in Kenya.

CHAPTER TWO – ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSES

Article 2 – Establishment and membership

1. THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES hereby establish among their respective States a Preferential Trade Area for Eastern and Southern African States, referred to in this Treaty as “the Preferential Trade Area”, as a first step towards the establishment of a Common Market and eventually of an Economic Community for Eastern and Southern African States.

2. Membership of the Preferential Trade Area shall be open to the following Eastern and Southern African States—

The People's Republic of Angola;
The Republic of Botswana;
The Federal Islamic Republic of the Comoros;
The Republic of Djibouti;
Socialist Ethiopia;
The Republic of Kenya;
The Kingdom of Lesotho;
The Democratic Republic of Madagascar;
The Republic of Malawi;
Mauritius;
The People's Republic of Mozambique;
The Republic of Seychelles;
The Somali Democratic Republic;
The Kingdom of Swaziland;
The United Republic of Tanzania;
The Republic of Uganda;
The Republic of Zambia;
The Republic of Zimbabwe.

3. The Member States of the Preferential Trade Area shall be the Eastern and Southern African States set out in paragraph 2 of this Article that sign, ratify or accede to this Treaty and such other immediately neighbouring African States that become Member States of the Preferential Trade Area under the provisions of Article 46 of this Treaty.

Article 3 – Aims and Specific Undertakings of the Preferential Trade Area

1. It shall be the aim of the Preferential Trade Area to promote co-operation and development in all fields of economic activity particularly in the fields of trade, customs, industry, transport, communications, agriculture, natural resources and monetary affairs with the aim of raising the standard of living of its peoples, of fostering closer relations among its Member States, and to contribute to the progress and development of the African continent.

2. The functioning and development of the Preferential Trade Area shall be reviewed in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty with a view to the establishment of a Common Market and eventually of an Economic Community for Eastern and Southern African States.

3. For the purposes set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article the Member States agree to implement the undertakings set out in paragraph 4 of this Article and as provided for elsewhere in particular provisions of this Treaty.

4. (a) The Member States undertake by way of the Protocols annexed to this Treaty to—

Preferential Trade Area (Implementation)

- (i) gradually reduce and eventually eliminate as between themselves customs duties in respect of imports of selected commodities produced within the Preferential Trade Area;
 - (ii) establish common rules of origin with respect to products that shall be eligible for preferential treatment;
 - (iii) establish appropriate payments and clearing arrangements among themselves that would facilitate trade in goods and services;
 - (iv) foster such co-operation among themselves in the fields of transport and communications as would facilitate trade in goods and services;
 - (v) co-operate in the field of industrial development;
 - (vi) co-operate in the field of agricultural development;
 - (vii) establish conditions regulating the re-export of products within the Preferential Trade Area;
 - (viii) promulgate regulations for facilitating transit trade within the Preferential Trade Area;
 - (ix) simplify and harmonize their trade documents and procedures;
 - (x) co-operate in customs matters;
 - (xi) standardize the manufacture and quality of goods produced and traded within the Preferential Trade Area;
 - (xii) recognize the unique situation of Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland and their membership of the Southern African Customs Union within the context of the Preferential Trade Area and to grant temporary exemptions to Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland from the full application of certain provisions of this Treaty; and
 - (xiii) govern such other matters as may be necessary to further the aims of the Preferential Trade Area.
- (b) The Member States further undertake to—
- (i) relax or abolish quantitative and administrative restrictions on trade among themselves;
 - (ii) promote the establishment of appropriate machinery for the exchange of agricultural products, minerals, metals, manufactures and semi-manufactures within the Preferential Trade Area;
 - (iii) promote the establishment of direct contacts between, and regulate the exchange of information among their commercial organizations such as State trading corporations, export promotion and marketing organizations, chambers of commerce, associations of businessmen and trade information and publicity centres;
 - (iv) ensure the application of the most favoured nation clause to each other;
 - (v) adapt progressively their commercial policy in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty; and

- (vi) take in common such other steps as are calculated to further the aims of the Preferential Trade Area.

Article 4 – General Undertaking

The Member States shall make every effort to plan and direct their development policies with a view to creating conditions favourable for the achievement of the aims of the Preferential Trade Area and the implementation of the provisions of this Treaty and shall abstain from any measures likely to jeopardize the achievement of the aims of the Preferential Trade Area or the implementation of the provisions of this Treaty.

CHAPTER THREE – INSTITUTIONS OF THE PREFERENTIAL TRADE AREA

Article 5 – Institutions

1. The institutions of the Preferential Trade Areas shall be—

- (a) the Authority;
- (b) the Council of Ministers;
- (c) the Secretariat;
- (d) the Tribunal; and
- (e) the Commission, the Committees and such other technical and specialized bodies as may be established or provided for by this Treaty.

2. The institutions of the Preferential Trade Area shall perform the functions and act within the limits of the powers conferred upon them by or under this Treaty.

Article 6 – The Authority of the Preferential Trade Area—Establishment, Composition and Functions

1. There is hereby established an Authority which shall be known as the Authority of the Preferential Trade Area and which shall consist of the Heads of State and Government of the Member States.

2. The Authority, which shall be the supreme organ of the Preferential Trade Area, shall be responsible for considering matters of general policy and for the general direction and control of the performance of the executive functions of the Preferential Trade Area and the achievement of its aims.

3. The decisions and directions of the Authority taken or given in pursuance of the provisions of this Treaty shall be binding on all other institutions of the Preferential Trade Area and on those to whom they are addressed other than the Tribunal without its jurisdiction.

4. The Authority shall normally meet once every year and may hold extraordinary meetings at the request of any member of the Authority provided that such a request is supported by one-third of the members of the Authority or upon the proposal of the Council of Ministers addressed to the Secretary-General. Subject to the provisions of the Treaty, the Authority shall determine its own rules of procedure.

5. The decisions of the Authority shall be taken by consensus.

Preferential Trade Area (Implementation)

Article 7 – Council of Ministers – Establishment, Composition and Functions

1. There is hereby established a Council which shall be known as the Council of Ministers and which shall consist of such Ministers as may be designated by each Member States.
2. It shall be the responsibility of the Council—
 - (a) to keep under constant review and ensure the proper functioning and development of the Preferential Trade Area in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty;
 - (b) to make recommendations to the Authority on matters of policy aimed at the efficient and harmonious functioning and development of the Preferential Trade area;
 - (c) to give directions to all other subordinate institutions of the Preferential Trade Area; and
 - (d) to exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as are conferred or imposed on it by this Treaty or as may be determined from time to time by the Authority.
3. The decisions and directions of the Council taken or given in pursuance of the provisions of the Treaty, shall be binding on all other subordinate institutions of the Preferential Trade Area and on those to whom they are addressed other than the Tribunal within its jurisdiction.
4. The Council shall meet at least twice a year and one of such meetings shall be held immediately preceding an ordinary meeting of the Authority. Extraordinary meetings of the Council may be held at the request of a Member State provided that such a request is supported by one-third of the Member States.
5. Subject to any directions that the Authority may give and to the provisions of this Treaty, the Council shall determine its own procedure including that for convening its meetings, for the conduct of business thereat and at other times and for the rotation of the office of Chairman among the members of the Council.
6. The decisions of the Council shall be taken by consensus.
7. Where an objection is recorded on behalf of a Member State to a proposal submitted for the decision of the Council, the proposal shall, unless such objection is withdrawn, be referred to the Authority for its decision.

Article 8 – Decisions of the Authority and the Council

The Authority shall determine the procedure for the dissemination of its decisions and directions and those of the Council and for matters relating to the coming into effect of such decisions and directions.

Article 9 – The Secretariat

1. There is hereby established a Secretariat of the Preferential Trade Area.
2. The Secretariat shall be headed by a Secretary-General who shall be appointed by the Authority to serve in such office for a term of four years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further period of four years.
3. The Secretary-General shall be the principal executive officer of the Preferential Trade Area. In addition to the Secretary-General, there shall be such other staff of the Secretariat as the Council may determine.

4. The terms and conditions of service of the Secretary-General and the other staff of the Secretariat shall be governed by regulations that may from time to time be made by the Council:

Provided that the Secretary-General shall only be removed from office by the Authority upon the recommendation of the Council.

5. In appointing staff to offices in the Secretariat, regard shall be had, subject to the paramount importance of securing the highest standards of integrity, efficiency and technical competence, to the desirability of maintaining an equitable distribution of appointments, to such offices among citizens of all the Member States.

6. (1) In the performance of their duties the Secretary-General and the staff of the Secretariat shall not seek or receive instructions from any Member State or from any other authority external to the Preferential Trade Area. They shall refrain from any actions which might reflect on their position as international officials responsible only to the Preferential Trade Area.

(2) Each Member State undertakes to respect the international character of the responsibilities of the Secretary-General and the staff of the Secretariat and shall not seek to influence them in the discharge of their responsibilities.

7. The Secretary-General shall—

- (a) as appropriate, service and assist the institutions of the Preferential Trade Area in the performance of their functions;
- (b) submit a report on the activities of the Preferential Trade Area to all meetings of the Authority and the Council;
- (c) be responsible for the administration and finances of the Preferential Trade Area and all its institutions and act as secretary to the Authority and the Council;
- (d) keep the functioning of the Preferential Trade Area under continuous examination and may act in relation to any particular matter which appears to merit examination either on his own initiative or upon the request of a Member State made through the Commission and the Secretary-General shall, where appropriate, report the results of his examination to the Commission;
- (e) on his own initiative or as may be assigned to him by the Authority or the Council undertake such work and studies and perform such services as relate to the aims of the Preferential Trade Area and to the implementation of the provision of this Treaty; and
- (f) for the performance of the functions imposed upon him by this Article, collect information and verify matters of fact relating to the functioning of the Preferential Trade Area and for that purpose may request a Member State to provide information relating thereto.

8. The Member States agree to co-operate with and assist the Secretary-General in the performance of the functions imposed upon him by paragraph 7 of this Article and agree in particular to provide any information which may be requested under subparagraph (f) of paragraph 7 of this Article.

Article 10 – Tribunal of the Preferential Trade Area

1. There is hereby established a judicial organ to be known as the Tribunal of the Preferential Trade Area which shall ensure the proper application or interpretation of the provisions of this Treaty and adjudicate upon such disputes as may be referred to it in accordance with Article 40 of this Treaty.

2. The Statute and other matters relating to the Tribunal shall be prescribed by the Authority.

Article 11 – The Intergovernmental Commission and Technical Committees—Establishment, Composition and Functions

1. There shall be established at such times as the Council may decide, as institutions of the Preferential Trade Area, the following Commission and Committees—

- (a) the Intergovernmental Commission of Experts;
- (b) the Customs and Trade Committee;
- (c) the Clearing and Payments Committee;
- (d) the Committee on Agricultural Co-operation;
- (e) the Committee on Industrial Co-operation;
- (f) the Transport and Communications Committee; and
- (g) the Committee on Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland.

2. There may be such other Committees as the Authority on the recommendation of the Council, may from time to time establish or as may be established under this Treaty at such times as the Council may determine.

3. The Commission or a Committee other than the Clearing and Payments Committee, shall consist of representatives designated by the Member States to serve on the Commission or on a Committee. Such representatives may be assisted by advisers.

4. The Commission or a Committee may establish such subcommittees as it may deem necessary for the purpose of discharging its functions and specify the composition of such subcommittees.

5. The Commission shall—

- (a) oversee the implementation of the provisions of this Treaty and for this purpose a Member State may request the Commission to investigate any particular matter;
- (b) for the purposes of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, request as necessary the Secretary-General to undertake specific investigations and to report his finding to the Commission;
- (c) submit from time to time reports and recommendations to the Council either on its own initiative or upon the request of the Council concerning the implementation of the provisions of this Treaty; and
- (d) have such other functions as are imposed on it under this Treaty.

6. Each Committee shall submit from time to time reports and recommendations to the Commission either on its own initiative or upon the request of the Commission or the Council concerning the implementation of related provisions of this Treaty, and have such other functions as are imposed on it under this Treaty.

7. Subject to any directive which may be given by the Council, the Commission or a Committee shall meet as often as necessary for the proper discharge of its functions and shall determine its own rules of procedure.

CHAPTER FOUR – CUSTOMS AND TRADE MATTERS

Article 12 – Liberalization of Trade

The Member States agree in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty to—

- (a) the gradual reduction and eventual elimination of customs duties and non-tariff barriers to trade conducted among themselves; and
- (b) the gradual evolution of a common external tariff in respect of all goods imported from third countries with a view to eventual establishment of a common market among themselves.

Article 13 – Customs Duties

1. The Member States shall reduce and eventually eliminate in accordance with the provisions of the Protocols on the gradual reduction and elimination of customs duties and co-operation in customs matters annexed to this Treaty respectively, as Annexes I and II, customs duties imposed on or in connection with the importation or exportation of the commodities which are set out in the Common List.

2. During a period of eighteen years from the definitive entry into force of this Treaty, a Member State may not be required to reduce or eliminate customs duties except in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article. During this period of eighteen years the Member States shall not impose any new customs duties or increase existing ones on goods appearing on the Common List and shall transmit to the Secretary-General all information on customs duties for study by the Customs and Trade Committee.

3. The Commission shall, after considering proposals from the Customs and Trade Committee submitted to it by the Secretary-General, recommend to the Council for its approval, a programme for the progressive reduction of customs duties among the Member States with a view to eliminating such duties not later than eighteen years after the definitive entry into force of this Treaty. Such a programme shall take into account the effects of the reduction and elimination of customs duties on the revenues of the Member States:

Provided that the Council may subsequently decide that any customs duties shall be reduced more rapidly or eliminated earlier than is approved under the provisions of this paragraph.

Article 14 – Common External Tariff

For the purposes of this Treaty, the Commission shall, on the recommendation of the Customs and Trade Committee, submit from time to time to the Council for its approval, a programme for the gradual establishment of a common external tariff.

Article 15 – Preferential Treatment

1. For the purposes of this Treaty, goods shall be accepted as eligible for preferential treatment if such goods—

- (a) originate in the Member States; and
- (b) are during the period of eighteen years specified in paragraph 2 of Article 13 of this Treaty contained in the Common List.

2. Goods shall be accepted as originating in the Member State where they satisfy the conditions prescribed in the Protocol on Rules of Origin annexed to this Treaty as Annex III.

Article 16 – Non-Tariff Restrictions on Goods

1. Except as is provided in this Article and in accordance with Annex I to this Treaty, each of the Member States undertakes that upon the definitive entry into force of this Treaty, it shall relax and remove the then existing quota, quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions on goods which apply to the transfer to that State, of goods originating in the other Member States and which are contained in the Common List. Except as may be provided or permitted by this Treaty, the Member States will thereafter refrain from imposing any further restrictions or prohibitions on such goods.

2. Except as is provided in this Article, the Commission shall, after considering proposals from the Customs and Trade Committee submitted to it by the Secretary-General, recommend to the Council for its approval a programme for the gradual relaxation and eventual elimination, not later than ten years from definitive entry into force of this Treaty, of all the existing quota, quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions which apply to Member State to the import of goods originating in the other Member States. Except as may be provided for or permitted by this Treaty, the Member States will thereafter refrain from imposing any further restrictions or prohibitions on such goods:

Provided that the Council may subsequently decide that any quota, quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions shall be relaxed more rapidly or removed earlier than is approved under the provisions of this paragraph.

3. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall not extend to the following—

- (a) export prohibitions or restrictions temporarily applied to prevent or relieve critical shortages of foodstuffs or other products essential to the exporting Member State;
- (b) import and export prohibitions or restrictions necessary to the application of standards or regulations for the classification, grading or marketing of commodities in international trade;
- (c) import restrictions on any agricultural or fisheries product, imported in any form, necessary to the enforcement of governmental measures which operate—
 - (i) to restrict the quantities of the like domestic product permitted to be marketed or produced, or if there is no substantial domestic production of the like product, of a domestic product for which the imported product can be directly substituted; or
 - (ii) to remove a temporary surplus of like domestic product, or, if there is no substantial domestic production of the like product, of a domestic product for which the imported product can be directly substituted, by making the surplus available to certain groups of domestic consumers free of charge or at prices below the current market level; or
 - (iii) to restrict the quantities permitted to be produced of any animal product the production of which is directly dependent, wholly or mainly, on the imported commodity, if the domestic production of that commodity is relatively negligible.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, a Member State may, after having given notice to the other Member State of its intention to do so, introduce or continue to impose restrictions or prohibitions affecting—

- (a) the application of security laws and regulations;
- (b) the control of arms, ammunition and other war equipment and military items;
- (c) the protection of human, animal or plant health or life or the protection of public morality;
- (d) the transfer of gold, silver and precious stones;
- (e) the protection of national treasures; or
- (f) the control of nuclear materials, radio-active products or any other material used in the development or exploitation of nuclear energy.

5. If a Member State encounters balance-of-payment difficulties arising from the application of the provisions of this Chapter, that Member State may, provided that it has taken all reasonable steps to overcome the difficulties, impose for the purpose only of overcoming such difficulties for a specified period to be determined by the Council quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions, on goods originating from the other Member States.

6. For the purpose of protecting an infant or strategic industry the products of which are contained in the Common List, a Member State may, provided that it has taken all reasonable steps to protect such infant or strategic industry, impose for the purpose only of protecting such industry for a specified period to be determined by the Council, quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions on similar goods originating from the other Member States.

7. A Member State imposing quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions under paragraphs 3, 5 and 6 of this Article shall inform the other Member States and the Secretary-General as soon as possible of such restrictions.

8. The Council shall keep under review the operation of any quantitative or the like restrictions or prohibitions imposed under the provisions of paragraphs 3, 5 and 6 of this Article and take appropriate decisions thereon.

Article 17 – Dumping

1. The Member States undertake to prohibit the practice of dumping goods within the Preferential Trade Area.

2. For the purposes of this Article, “dumping” means the transfer of goods originating in a Member State to another Member State for sale—

- (a) at a price lower than the comparable price charged for similar goods in the Member State where such goods originate (due allowance being made for the differences in the conditions of sale, in taxation, in transport costs or for any other factors affecting the comparability of price); and
- (b) under circumstances likely to prejudice the production of similar goods in that Member State.

Article 18 – Most Favoured Nation Treatment

1. The Member States shall accord to one another in relation to trade between them the most favoured nation treatment.

Preferential Trade Area (Implementation)

2. In no case shall trade concessions granted to a third country under an agreement with a Member State be more favourable than those applicable under this Treaty.
3. Any agreement between a Member State and a third country under which tariff concessions are granted shall not derogate from the obligations of that Member State under this Treaty.
4. The provisions of this Article shall apply only with respect to commodities contained in this Common List.

Article 19 – Re-Exportation of Goods and Transit Facilities

1. The Member States shall undertake to facilitate trade in re-exports among themselves. However, in certain cases to be jointly agreed upon, a Member State from which the goods to be re-exported originate, may object to the re-export of such goods.
2. Each Member State shall grant freedom of transit through its territory of goods proceeding to or from another Member State indirectly through that territory in accordance with the provisions of the Protocol on transit trade and transit facilities annexed to this Treaty as Annex V.
3. The Member States agree that the goods imported into their territories from the Republic of South Africa shall not be re-exported into the territories of another Member State and that goods imported into the Member States from a Member State shall not be re-exported to the Republic of South Africa.
4. The Member States further agree that goods being imported or re-exported in contravention of the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Article shall not benefit from the transit facilities and privileges provided for in this Treaty.

Article 20 – Customs Administration

The Member States shall in accordance with the provisions of Annex II to this Treaty, take measures to harmonize and standardize their customs regulations and procedures to ensure the effective application of the provisions of this Chapter and to facilitate the movement of goods and services across their frontiers.

Article 21 – Drawback

1. The Member States may, after eighteen years from the definitive entry into force of this Treaty, refuse to accept as eligible for preferential treatment goods in relation to which drawback is claimed or made use of in connection with their exportation from the Member State in the territory of which the goods have undergone the last process of production.
2. At the end of the period of eighteen years referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article the Commission shall, after considering proposals from the Customs and Trade Committee submitted to it by the Secretary-General, make recommendations to the Council concerning the extension or otherwise, of the period of eighteen years referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article for the purposes of that paragraph.
3. For the purposes of this Article—
 - (a) “drawback” means any arrangement, including temporary duty-free admission or the refund of all or part of customs duties applicable to imported materials, provided that the arrangement, expressly or in effect, allows such refund or remission if goods are exported but not if they are retained for home use; and

- (b) “remission” includes exemption from duties on materials brought into free ports, free zones or other places which have similar customs privileges.

CHAPTER FIVE – CO-OPERATION IN PARTICULAR FIELDS

Article 22 – Clearing and Payment Arrangements
