1.—(1) A member of the Council holding office by virtue of section 2 (g) and (h) shall hold office for a term of three years and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) The office of a member of the Council mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above shall become vacant if—

(a) he resigns his office by notice in writing under his hand, addressed to the Commissioner ; or

(b) the Commissioner is satisfied that it is not in the interest of the Institute for the person appointed to continue in office and notifies the member in writing to that effect.

2. Members of the Council not being ex-officio members may be paid such travelling and other allowances as may from time to time be approved by the Commissioner.

3. The Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership or any defect in the appointment of a member or the absence of a member.

Committees

4.—(1) The Council may appoint one or more committees to advise it in the exercise and performance of its functions.

(2) Every such committee shall consist of—

(a) a chairman who shall be appointed by the Council from among the members of the Council ;

(b) not more than five persons (who may not all be members of the Council), so however that any non-member of the Council co-opted to serve on any committee shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of a member except the right to vote and to count towards a quorum.

(3) In this paragraph "chairman" means the chairman of a committee.

Proceedings of the Council

5.—(1) The Council shall meet for the conduct of business at such times, places and on such days as the chairman may appoint but shall meet not less than three times in a year.

(2) The chairman may at any time, and shall at the request in writing of the Commissioner or of not less than four members, summon a meeting ; and if the chairman fails so to do, the Commissioner may himself summon a meeting.

(3) Particulars of the business to be transacted at any meeting shall be circulated to members with the notice of the meeting.

6.—(1) Every question put before the Council at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

(2) The quorum for meetings of the Council shall be six of whom at least two shall be persons appointed under section 2(b), (c) and (d) of this Decree.

(3) The chairman shall, at any meeting, have a vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, may exercise a casting vote.

7.—(1) The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Council, but if he is absent from any meeting of the Council, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at that meeting.

(2) During the chairman's absence on leave or if the chairman is otherwise not available, or is unable to perform his functions, the Commissioner may appoint any member of the Council to act as chairman for a specified period.

8. The validity of any proceedings of the Council or of any of its committees shall not be affected—

(a) by any vacancy in the membership of the Council or any such Committees ;

(b) by any defect in the appointment of any member ; and

(c) by reason of the fact that any person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Decree, the Council may make standing orders with respect to the holding of meetings, the nature of notice to be given, the proceedings thereat, the keeping of minutes of such proceedings and the custody and production for inspection of such minutes.

Miscellaneous

10.—(1) Any contract or instrument which if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate would not be required to be under seal may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Council by any person generally or specifically authorised in that behalf by the Council.

(2) Any member of the Council or of a committee thereof, who has a personal interest in any contract or arrangement entered into or proposed to be considered by the Council or a committee thereof, shall forthwith disclose his interest to the Council or the committee and shall not vote on any question relating to such contract or arrangement.

11.—(1) The common seal of the Council shall not be used or affixed to any document except in pursuance of a resolution duly passed at a properly constituted meeting of the Council and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(2) The fixing of the seal of the Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman or some other member authorised generally or specifically by the Council to act for that purpose.

(3) Any document purporting to be a document duly executed under the seal of the Council shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to be so executed.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 12

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES, ASSETS AND LIABILITIES OF NIGERIAN INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RESEARCH, IBADAN

1. By virtue of this Decree there shall be vested in the Council immediately at the commencement of this Decree without further assurance all assets, funds, resources and other movable or immovable property which immediately before the commencement of this Decree were vested in the Nigerian Institute of Social and Economic Research, Ibadan (referred to in this Schedule as "the old Institute").

2. As from the date of commencement of this Decree—
