(3) Cancellation of the practising certificate shall be prima facie evidence that such valuer is no longer registered.

(4) A valuer who is aggrieved with the decision of the Board to suspend or cancel certificate may, within thirty days from the date of such decision, appeal to the Minister who shall determine the appeal within thirty days.

Publication of suspension or cancellation of certificate

45.-(1) Where a practising certificate of a registered valuer has been suspended or cancelled, the Registrar shall cause a note of the suspension or cancellation to be entered against the name of the registered valuer in the Register and be published in Gazette.

(2) Where the suspension or cancellation is lifted, the Registrar shall cause a note of lifting the suspension or cancellation to be entered against the name of the registered valuer on the Register and be published in Gazette.

Publication as evidence of holding practising certificate

46.-(1) Any list published in the Gazette by the Registrar containing names of registered valuers who have certificates for the current year shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that the persons named in the list as registered valuers hold the certificate for that current year.

(2) The absence from any such list of the name of any person shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that, that person is not a registered valuer for that current year, but in the case of any such person an extract from the Register certified as correct by the Registrar shall be evidence of the facts appearing in the extract.

PART V GUIDANCE ON VALUATION PRACTICE

Guidance on valuation practice

47. Every registered valuer or person practising valuation shall comply with guidance on valuation practice set out under this Part and regulations made under this Act.

Types of valuation

48. For the purposes of this Act, valuations are categorized into-

- (a) statutory valuation, which is governed by a specific law, or whose instructions or procedures are a result of a legal requirement;

- (b) non-statutory valuation, which arises out of market demands or specific requirements and are not governed by any law.

Purposes of valuation

49.-(1) Every registered valuer shall, in accordance with instructions received, indicate in a valuation report the purposes for which a valuation is required.

(2) The carrying out of valuation shall be for the following purposes:

- (a) rating;
- (b) compensation;
- (c) land rent assessment;
- (d) probate and administration;
- (e) capital gains tax;
- (f) sale or purchase;
- (g) mortgage;
- (h) rental value assessment;
- (i) financial reporting;
- (j) insurance;
- (k) investment;
- (l) stock market floatation;
- (m) market value;
- (n) bail; and
- (o) any other purpose that the Board may prescribe.

Basis of Valuation

50.-(1) In the course of undertaking valuation and preparation of valuation report, a registered valuer shall state the basis and method of valuation adopted and all assumptions used in arriving at values.

(2) For purposes of this section taking into account the scale of the exercise, bases of valuation includes-

- (a) market;
- (b) cost; and
- (c) income.

(3) Where the registered valuer relies on any additional assumption, whether basing on his own opinion or on the instructions of his client, the valuer shall state in writing such additional assumptions and reasons thereof.

Methods of valuation

51.-(1) In the valuation process, a registered valuer shall apply the appropriate method of valuation and shall include-

- (a) direct market comparative method;
- (b) replacement cost or contractors test method;
- (c) income approach or investment method;
- (d) profit method; and
- (e) residual method.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), when other methods or variations are applied, the methods shall be explained and data used in the valuation shall be substantiated.

Validity of
valuation

52.-(1) Valuation and valuation report prepared under this Act shall be valid for such period as the Minister may prescribe.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), valuation conducted together with valuation reports prepared under this Act for purposes of compensation shall be valid for the period of two years commencing from the date of endorsement of the valuation report.

(3) The endorsement of valuation report under subsection (2) shall be effected within six months after the valuation of interest in property of the last person.

(4) Where the Chief Valuer has approved a valuation relating to compensation, the person or entity responsible shall be liable to effect prompt payment of compensation to all affected persons.

(5) A person or an entity which fails to effect prompt payment of compensation shall, in addition to the principal sum, be liable to pay an interest to be chargeable at the average percentage rate of interest offered by commercial banks on fixed deposits until such compensation is paid.

(6) Where the compensation and interest referred to in subsection (5) is not settled within two years, the valuation shall not have a legal effect and shall start afresh.

(7) The validity in respect of other purposes of valuation as provided for in section 49 shall be prescribed by the Minister in the regulations

(8) For purposes of this section “prompt payment of compensation” means the payment of compensation within six months after approval of valuation by the Chief Valuer.

Cut off date
and limitation
period

53.-(1) For purposes of any valuation, the cut off date shall be the date of commencement of valuation.

(2) The period of limitation in relation to any proceedings relating to valuation conducted under this Act shall be as prescribed in the Law of Limitation Act.

Cap. 89

(3) Upon commencement of valuation, a person shall not add or improve anything to the land or such premises.

Best practice
guidelines

54. Upon recommendation of the Board, the Minister shall, within six months after the coming into operation of this Act, prepare and publish in the Gazette guidelines prescribing best practice in valuation.

Access to land,
buildings, etc

55.-(1) A registered valuer may:
