PART II FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS

Sub-Part A - Child Labour

Prohibition of child labour

5.-(1) No person shall employ a child under the age of fourteen years.

(2) A child of fourteen years of age may only be employed to do light work, which is not likely to be harmful to the child's health and development; and does not prejudice the child's attendance at school, participation in vocational orientation or training programmes approved by the competent authority or the child's capacity to benefit from the instruction received.

(3) A child under eighteen years of age shall not be employed in a mine, factory or as crew on a ship or in any other worksite including non-formal settings and agriculture, where work conditions may be considered hazardous by the Minister. For the purpose of this subsection, "ship" includes a vessel of any description used for navigation.

(4) No person shall employ a child in employment-

- (a) that is inappropriate for a person of that age;
- (b) that places at risk the child's well-being, education, physical or mental health, or spiritual, moral or social development.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), any written law regulating the provisions of training may permit a child under the age of eighteen to work-

- (a) on board a training ship as part of the child's training;
- (b) in a factory or a mine if that work is part of the child's training.
- (c) in any other worksites on condition that the health, safety and morals of the child are fully protected and that the child has received or is receiving adequate specific instruction or vocational training in the relevant work or activity.

- (6) The Minister shall make regulations-
 - (a) to prohibit, or place conditions on the employment of children under eighteen years of age;
 - (b) to determine the forms of work referred to in sub-section (4) of this Act and to make provision for the regular revision and updating of the list of hazardous forms of work.
- (7) It is an offence for any person-
 - (a) to employ a child in contravention of this section;
 - (b) to procure a child for employment in contravention of this section.

(8) In any proceedings under this section, if the age of the child is in issue, the burden of proofing that it was reasonable to believe, after investigation, that the child was not under age for the purposes of this section shall lie on the person employing or procuring the child for employment.

Sub-Part B - Forced Labour

Prohibition of forced labour

6.-(1) Any person who procures, demands or imposes forced labour, commits an offence.

(2) For the purposes of this section, forced labour includes bonded labour or any work exacted from a person under the threat of a penalty and to which that person has not consented but does not include-

Cap.192

- (a) any work exacted under the National Defence Act, for work of a purely military character;
- (b) any work that forms part of the normal civic obligations of a citizen of the United Republic of Tanzania;
- (c) any work exacted from any person as a consequence of a conviction in a court of law, provided that the work is carried out under the supervision and control of a public authority and that the person is not hired to, or placed at, the disposal of private persons;
- (d) any work exacted in cases of an emergency or a circumstance that would endanger the existence or the well-being of the whole or part of the population;
- (e) minor communal services performed by the members of a community in the direct interest of that community after consultation with them or their direct representatives on the need for the services.

Sub-Part C: Discrimination

Prohibition of discrimination in the workplace

7.-(1) Every employer shall ensure that he promotes an equal opportunity in employment and strives to eliminate discrimination in any employment policy or practice.

(2) An employer shall register, with the Labour Commissioner, a plan to promote equal opportunity and to eliminate discrimination in the work place.

(3) The Labour Commissioner may require an employer-

(a) to develop a plan prescribed in subsection (2); and

(b) to register the plan with the Commissioner.

(4) No employer shall discriminate, directly or indirectly, against an employee, in any employment policy or practice, on any of the following grounds:

(a) colour;

(b) nationality;

(c) tribe or place of origin;

(d) race;

(e) national extraction;

(5) Harassment of an employee shall be a form of discrimination and shall be prohibited on any one, or combination, of the grounds prescribed in subsection (4).

(6) It is not discrimination -

(a) to take affirmative action measures consistent with the promotion of equality or the elimination of discrimination in the workplace;

(b) to distinguish, exclude or prefer any person on the basis of an inherent requirement of a job; or

(c) to employ citizens in accordance with the National Employment Promotion Services Act;

(7) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsections (4) and (5), commits an offence.

(8) In any proceedings-

(a) where the employee makes out a prima facie case of discrimination by the employer on any of the grounds prescribed in subsection (4), it shall be the duty of the employer to prove-

(i) that the discrimination did not take place as alleged; or

(ii) that the discriminatory act or omission is not based on any of those grounds; or

(b) employer shall prove a defence in terms of subsection (6) if the discrimination did take place on a ground stipulated in subsection (5);

(c) the Labour Court or arbitrator, as the case may be, shall take into account any plan registered with the Labour Commissioner under this section.

(9) For the purposes of this section-

(a) "employer" includes an employment agency;

(b) "employee" includes an applicant for employment;

(c) an "employment policy or practice" includes any policy or practice relating to recruitment procedures, advertising and selection criteria, appointments and the appointment process, job classification and grading, remuneration, employment benefits and terms and conditions of employment, job assignments, the working environment and facilities, training and development, performance evaluation systems, promotion transfer, demotion, termination of employment and disciplinary measures.

(10) For the avoidance of doubt every employer shall take positive steps to guarantee equal remuneration for men and women for work of equal value.

Prohibition of discrimination in trade unions and employer associations

8.-(1) No trade union or employers' association shall discriminate, directly or indirectly, against any of the grounds prescribed in subsection (4) of section 7-

(a) in its admission, representation or termination of membership;

(b) in any employment policy or practice prescribed in subsection (9) of section 7;

(c) in any collective agreement.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1), commits an offence.

(2) The hourly, daily, weekly or monthly wage rates shall be determined in accordance with the Table provided for in the First Schedule.

(3) Where an employee is employed on a basis other than time worked, that employee shall be considered, for the purposes of this section, to be paid on a weekly basis and that employee's basic weekly wage shall be calculated on the amount earned -

- (a) over the immediately preceding thirteen weeks, or
- (b) if the employee has been in employment for less than thirteen weeks, that period.

Payment
of remuneration

27.-(1) An employer shall pay to an employee any monetary remuneration to which the employee is entitled-

- (a) during working hours at the place of work on the agreed pay day,
- (b) in cash, unless the employee agrees otherwise, in which case the payment shall be made either by -
 - (i) cheque payable to the employee; or
 - (ii) direct deposit into an account designated by the employee in writing; and
- (c) in a sealed envelope, if the payment is made in cash or by cheque.

(2) Each payment prescribed in subsection (1) shall be supported by a written statement of particulars in the prescribed form which-

- (a) shall accompany the payment if the payment is in cash or by cheque; or
- (b) shall be given to the employee in a sealed envelope if the payment is by direct deposit.

(3) Remuneration shall be due and payable at the end of contract period provided the employer may pay an advance before the due day on a mutually agreed day and, if such day is not agreed, at least once on completion of half the contract period. Such advance shall not be considered a loan and shall not attract interest.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Minister may by regulations provide for the partial payment of remuneration in the form of allowance in kind, but in no case alcoholic beverages or noxious drugs, in industries or occupations in which payment in the form of such allowance is customary or desirable, and any such allowance in kind shall be for the personal use of the employee and his or her family, and the value attributed to such allowance shall be fair and reasonable.

(5) Any employer who contravenes the provisions of this section, commits an offence.

Deductions
and other acts concerning
remuneration

28.-(1) An employer shall not make any deduction from an employee's remuneration unless-

- (a) the deduction is required or permitted under a written law, collective agreement, wage determination, court order or arbitration award; or
- (b) subject to subsection (2), the employee in writing agrees to the deduction in respect of a debt.

(2) A deduction under subsection (1)(b) may be made to reimburse an employer for loss or damage only if-

- (a) the loss or damage occurred in the course of employment and was due to the fault of the employee;
- (b) the employer has submitted to the employee, in writing, the cause, the amount and calculation of the debt;
- (c) the employer has given the employee a reasonable opportunity to challenge the cause, amount or calculation;
- (d) the total amount of the debt does not exceed the actual amount of the loss or damage;
- (e) the total deductions from the employee's remuneration under this subsection do not exceed one quarter of the employee's remuneration in money.

(3) An agreement to make a deduction under subsection (1)(b) in respect of goods or services purchased by the employee shall specify the cause, amount and calculation of the debt.

(4) An employer who deducts an amount from an employee's remuneration under subsection (1) for payment to another person shall pay the amount to the person in accordance with any requirements specified in the agreement, law, determination, court order or arbitration award.

(5) An employer shall not require or permit an employee to-

- (a) repay any remuneration except for overpayments previously made by the employer resulting from an error in calculating the

- employee's remuneration; or
- (b) acknowledge receipt of an amount greater than the remuneration actually received.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law on bankruptcy or winding up of an employer's business, the claim of an employee or those claiming on behalf of the employee of any remuneration to which the employee is entitled under this Act, shall be the claim that which have accrued in respect of the twenty six weeks immediately preceding the date on which the declaration of bankruptcy or winding-up is made.

(7) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section, commits an offence.

Sub-Part D - Leave

Application
of this Sub-Part

29.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), an employee with less than six months service shall not be entitled to paid leave under the provisions of this Part.

- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)-
 - (a) an employee employed on a seasonal basis is entitled to paid leave under the provisions of this Part;
 - (b) an employee, with less than six months service and who has worked more than once in a year for the same employer, shall be entitled to paid leave under the provisions of this Part if the total period worked for that employer exceeds six months in that year.

Interpretation
in this Sub-
Part

30.-(1) For the purpose of this Sub-Part-

- (a) "day" includes any rest period prescribed in section 24;
- (b) "leave cycle" means -
 - (i) in respect of annual leave, a period of 12 months consecutive employment with an employer following-
 - (aa) subject to subsection (2), an employee's commencement of employment; or
 - (bb) the completion of the last 12 months leave cycle.;
 - (ii) in respect of all other forms of leave conferred under this Sub-Part, a period of 36 months' consecutive employment with an employer following -
 - (aa) subject to subsection (2), an employee's commencement of employment; or
 - (bb) the completion of the last 36 months leave cycle;
- (c) "paid leave" means any leave paid under this Part and calculated on an employee's basic wage.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(b)(i)(aa) and (ii)(aa), an employer and employee may agree to a standard leave cycle provided that an employee's entitlement to paid leave under this Sub-Part is not prejudiced.

Annual
leave

31.-(1) An employer shall grant an employee at least 28 consecutive days' leave in respect of each leave cycle, and such leave shall be inclusive of any public holiday that may fall within the period of leave.

(2) The number of days referred to in subsection (1) may be reduced by the number of days during the leave cycle which, at the request of the employee, the employer granted that employee paid occasional leave.

(3) An employer may determine when the annual leave is to be taken provided that it is taken no later than -

- (a) six months after the end of the leave cycle; or
- (b) twelve months after the end of the leave cycle if -
 - (i) the employee has consented; and
 - (ii) the extension is justified by the operational requirements of the employer.

(4) An employer shall pay an employee the remuneration the employee would have been paid had the employee worked during the period of leave before the commencement of the leave.

(5) An employer shall not require or permit an employee to take annual leave in place of any leave to which the employee is entitled under this Part.

(6) An employer shall not require or permit an employee to work for the employer during any period of annual leave.

(7) Subject to the provisions of subsection (8), an employer shall not pay an employee an amount of money in substitution for the annual leave to which that employee is entitled, whether or not the employee agrees to such payment.

(8) An employer shall pay an employee a pro rata amount for annual leave accrued-

- (a) subject to the provisions of subsection (9), at the termination of employment; or
- (b) at the expiry of each season in respect of an employee employed on a seasonal basis.

(9) An employee is not entitled to be paid any pro rata amount for accrued annual leave if the employee has not taken the leave within the periods and circumstances prescribed in subsection (3).

(10) The pro rata amount of annual leave referred to in subsection (8) shall be calculated at the rate of one day's basic wage for every thirteen days the employee worked or was entitled to work.

Sick leave

32.-(1) An employee shall be entitled to sick leave for at least 126 days in any leave cycle.

(2) The sick leave referred to in subsection (1) shall be calculated as follows-

- (a) the first 63 days shall be paid full wages;

(b) the second 63 days shall be paid half wages.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), an employer shall not be required to pay an employee for sick leave if-

(a) the employee fails to produce a medical certificate; or

(b) the employee is entitled to paid sick leave under any law, fund or collective agreement

(4) For the purposes of this section, 'medical certificate' means a certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner or any other medical practitioner accepted by the employer, which acceptance may not be unreasonably withheld.

Maternity
leave

33.-(1) An employee shall give notice to the employer of her intention to take maternity leave at least 3 months before the expected date of birth and such notice shall be supported by a medical certificate.

(2) An employee may commence maternity leave-

(a) at any time from four weeks before the expected date of confinement;

(b) on an earlier date if a medical practitioner certifies that it is necessary for the employee's health or that of her unborn child.

(3) No employee shall work within six weeks of the birth of her child, unless a medical practitioner certifies that she is fit to do so.

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), the employee may resume employment on the same terms and conditions of employment at the end of her maternity leave.

(5) No employer shall require or permit a pregnant employee or an employee who is nursing a child to perform work that is hazardous to her health or the health of her child.

(6) Subject to the provisions of subsections (7) and (8), an employee shall be entitled, within any leave cycle, to at least-

(a) 84 days' paid maternity leave; or

(b) 100 days paid maternity leave if the employee gives birth to more than one child at the same time.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a), an employee is entitled to an additional 84 days paid maternity leave within the leave cycle if the child dies within a year of birth.

(8) An employer is only obliged to grant paid leave for 4 terms of maternity leave to an employee in terms of this section

(9) Where an employee performs work that is hazardous to her health or that of her child, her employer shall offer her suitable alternative employment, if practicable, on terms and conditions that are no less favourable than her terms and conditions.

(10) Where an employee is breast-feeding a child, the employer shall allow the employee to feed the child during working hours up to a maximum of two hours per day.

(11) For the purposes of this section, "medical certificate" means a certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner, including a midwife, or any other medical practitioner accepted by the employer, which acceptance may not be unreasonably withheld.

Paternity
and other forms of leave

34.-(1) During any leave cycle, an employee shall be entitled to –

- (a) at least 3 days paid paternity leave if-
 - (i) the leave is taken within seven days of the birth of a child; and
 - (ii) the employee is the father of the child;
- (b) at least 4 days paid leave for any of the following reasons-
 - (i) the sickness or death of the employee's child;
 - (ii) the death of the employee's spouse, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling.

(2) Before paying an employee for leave under this section, an employer may require reasonable proof of the event prescribed in subsection (1).

(3) For the purpose of clarity-

- (a) the 3 days referred to in subsection (1)(a) are the total number of days to which the employee is entitled irrespective of how many of the employee's children are born within the leave cycle;
- (b) the 4 days referred to in subsection (1)(b) are the total number of days to which the employee is entitled irrespective of how many of the events prescribed in that paragraph occur within the leave cycle, but the employee may take more days as may be authorised by the employer for the event and other subsequent events within the same leave cycle provided that such extra days will be without pay.

Sub-Part E- Unfair termination of employment

Application
of this Sub-
Part

35. The provisions of this Sub-Part shall not apply to an employee with less than 6 months' employment with the same employer, whether under one or more contracts.

Interpretation

36. For purposes of this Sub-Part -

- (a) "termination of employment" includes-
 - (i) a lawful termination of employment under the common law;
 - (ii) a termination by an employee because the employer made continued employment intolerable for the employee;
 - (iii) a failure to renew a fixed term contract on the same or similar terms if there was a reasonable expectation of renewal;
 - (iv) a failure to allow an employee to resume work after taking maternity leave granted under this Act or any

- agreed maternity leave; and
- (v) a failure to re-employ an employee if the employer has terminated the employment of a number of employees for the same or similar reasons and has offered to re-employ one or more of them;
- (b) "terminate employment" has a meaning corresponding to 'termination of employment'.

Unfair
termination

37.-(1) It shall be unlawful for an employer to terminate the employment of an employee unfairly.

(2) A termination of employment by an employer is unfair if the employer fails to prove-

- (a) that the reason for the termination is valid;
- (b) that the reason is a fair reason -
 - (i) related to the employee's conduct, capacity or compatibility; or
 - (ii) based on the operational requirements of the employer, and
- (c) that the employment was terminated in accordance with a fair procedure.

(3) It shall not be a fair reason to terminate the employment of an employee-

- (a) for the reason that-
 - (i) discloses information that the employee is entitled or required to disclose to another person under this Act or any other law;
 - (ii) fails or refuses to do anything that an employer may not lawfully permit or require the employee to do;
 - (iii) exercises any right conferred by agreement, this Act or any other law;
 - (iv) belongs, or belonged, to any trade union; or
 - (v) participates in the lawful activities of a trade union, including a lawful strike;
- (b) for reasons-
 - (i) related to pregnancy;
 - (ii) related to disability, and
 - (iii) that constitute discrimination under this Act.

(4) In deciding whether a termination by an employer is fair, an employer, arbitrator or Labour Court shall take into account any Code of Good Practice published under section 99.

(5) No disciplinary action in form of penalty, termination or dismissal shall lie upon an employee who has been charged with a criminal offence which is substantially the same until final determination by the Court and any appeal thereto.

Termination based on operational requirements

38.-(1) In any termination for operational requirements (retrenchment), the employer shall comply with the following principles, that is to say, he shall –

- (a) give notice of any intention to retrench as soon as it is contemplated;
- (b) disclose all relevant information on the intended retrenchment for the purpose of proper consultation;
- (c) consult prior to retrenchment or redundancy on-
 - (i) the reasons for the intended retrenchment;
 - (ii) any measures to avoid or minimise the intended retrenchment;
 - (iii) the method of selection of the employees to be retrenched;
 - (iv) the timing of the retrenchments; and
 - (v) severance pay in respect of the retrenchments,
- (d) give the notice, make the disclosure and consult, in terms of this subsection, with-
 - (i) any trade union recognised in terms of section 67;
 - (ii) any registered trade union with members in the workplace not represented by a recognised trade union;
 - (iii) any employees not represented by a recognised or registered trade union.

(2) Where in the consultations held in terms of sub-section(1) no agreement is reached between the parties, the matter shall be referred to mediation under Part VIII of this Act.

(3) Where, in any retrenchment, the reason for the termination is the refusal of an employee to accept new terms and conditions of employment, the employer shall satisfy the Labour Court that the recourse to a lock out to effect the change to terms and conditions was not appropriate in the circumstances.

Proof in unfair termination proceedings

39. In any proceedings concerning unfair termination of an employee by an employer, the employer shall prove that the termination is fair.

Remedies for unfair termination

40.-(1) If an arbitrator or Labour Court finds a termination is unfair, the arbitrator or Court may order the employer-

- (a) to reinstate the employee from the date the employee was terminated without loss of remuneration during the period that the employee was absent from work due to the unfair termination; or
- (b) to re-engage the employee on any terms that the arbitrator or Court may decide; or
- (c) to pay compensation to the employee of not less than twelve months' remuneration.

(2) An order for compensation made under this section shall be in addition to, and not a substitute for, any other amount to which the employee may be entitled in terms of any law or agreement.

(3) Where an order of reinstatement or re-engagement is made by an arbitrator or court and the employer decides not to reinstate or reengage the employee, the employer shall pay compensation of twelve months wages in addition to wages due and other benefits from the date of unfair termination to the date of final payment.

Sub-Part F Other incidents of Termination

Notice of termination

41.-(1) If a contract of employment can be terminated on notice, the period of notice shall not be less than-

- (a) seven days, if notice is given in the first month of employment; and
- (b) after that-
 - (i) 4 days, if the employee is employed on a daily or weekly basis; or
 - (ii) 28 days, if the employee is employed on a monthly basis

(2) An agreement may provide for a notice period that is longer than that required in subsection (1) provided that, the agreed notice period is of equal duration for both the employer and the employee.

(3) Notice of termination shall be in writing, stating -

- (a) the reasons for termination; and
- (b) the date on which the notice is given.

(4) Notice of termination shall not be given -

- (a) during any period of leave taken under this Act; or
- (b) to run concurrently with any such period of leave.

(5) Instead of giving an employee notice of termination, an employer may pay the employee the remuneration that the employee would have received if the employee had worked during the notice period.

(6) Where an employee refuses to work during the notice period, an employer may deduct, from any money due to that employee on termination, the amount that would have been due to the employee if that employee had worked during the notice period.

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of-

- (a) an employee to dispute the lawfulness or fairness of a termination of employment under this Act or any other law;
- (b) an employer or an employee to terminate employment without notice for any cause recognised by law.

Severance pay

42.-(1) For the purposes of this section, "severance pay" means an amount at least equal to 7 days' basic wage for each completed year of continuous service with that employer up to a maximum of ten years.

(2) An employer shall pay severance pay on termination of employment if-

- (a) the employee has completed 12 months continuous service with an employer; and
- (b) subject to the provisions of subsection (3), the employer terminates the employment.
- (3) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not apply-
 - (a) to a fair termination on grounds of misconduct;
 - (b) to an employee who is terminated on grounds of capacity compatibility or operational requirements of the employer but who unreasonably refuses to accept alternative employment with that employer or any other employer.
- (4) The payment of severance pay under this section shall not affect an employee's right to any other amount payable under this or any other written law.

Transport
to place of recruitment

43.-(1) Where an employee's contract of employment is terminated at a place other than where the employee was recruited, the employer shall either-

- (a) transport the employee and his personal effects to the place of recruitment,
 - (b) pay for the transportation of the employee to the place of recruitment, or
 - (c) pay the employee an allowance for transportation to the place of recruitment in accordance with subsection (2) and daily subsistence expenses during the period, if any, between the date of termination of the contract and the date of transporting the employee and his family to the place of recruitment.
- (2) An allowance prescribed under subsection (1)(c) shall be equal to at least a bus fare to the bus station nearest to the place of recruitment.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, "recruit" means the solicitation of any employee for employment by the employer or the employer's agent.

Payment
on termination
and certificates
of employment

44.-(1) On termination of employment, an employer shall pay an employee-

- (a) any remuneration for work done before the termination;
 - (b) any annual leave pay due to an employee under section 31 for leave that the employee has not taken;
 - (c) any annual leave pay accrued during any incomplete leave cycle determined in accordance with section 31 (1);
 - (d) any notice pay due under section 41(5); and
 - (e) any severance pay due under section 42;
 - (f) any transport allowance that may be due under section 43.
- (2) On termination, the employer shall issue to an employee a prescribed certificate of service.

(2) The amalgamating organisations or federations may apply to the Registrar for registration of the amalgamated organisation or federation and the provisions of section 48, relating to registration process shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to the application.

(3) After the Registrar has registered the amalgamated organization or federation, he shall cancel the registration of each of the amalgamating organisations or federations by removing their names from the appropriate register.

(4) The registration of an amalgamated organisation or federation shall become effective from the date the Registrar enters its name in the appropriate register.

(5) Where the Registrar has registered an amalgamated organization or federation-

- (a) all the assets, rights, obligations and liabilities of the amalgamating organisations or federations shall devolve upon and vest in the amalgamated organisation or federation; and
- (b) the amalgamated organisation or federation shall succeed the amalgamating organisations or federations in respect of-
 - (i) any right that the amalgamating organisations or federations enjoyed;
 - (ii) any fund established under this Act or any other law;
 - (iii) any collective agreement or other agreement; and
 - (iv) any written authorisation by a member for the periodic deduction of levies or subscriptions due to the amalgamating organisations.

Cancellation
of registration

55.-(1) The Registrar may apply to the Labour Court for an order to cancel the registration of a registered organisation or federation if that organisation or federation fails to comply with -

- (a) the requirements for registration; or
- (b) the provisions of this Part.

(2) Where the Labour Court may make any appropriate order including-

- (a) cancelling the registration of an organisation or federation;
- (b) giving the organisation or federation an opportunity to remedy any failure to comply.
- (3) Where the registration of an organisation or federation is cancelled-
 - (a) all the rights enjoyed by it under this Act shall cease; and
 - (b) the organisation or federation shall be dissolved in accordance with the provisions of section 56.

Dissolution of trade union or employer's association

56.-(1) The Registrar may apply to the Labour Court for the dissolution of any organisation that contravenes the provisions of section 45.

(2) An organisation or federation may apply to the Labour Court for its dissolution.

(3) Where the Labour Court makes an order for cancelling the registration of an organisation or federation under section 55(2), it may in addition make an order dissolving the organisation or federation.

(4) In accordance with the laws relating to bankruptcy, any interested person may apply to the Labour Court for dissolution of a registered organisation or federation on any ground of bankruptcy.

(5) The laws of bankruptcy, shall apply to an application prescribed in subsection (3) and any reference to a court in those laws shall be interpreted as referring to the Labour Court.

(6) In granting an order of dissolution under this section, the Labour Court may-

- (a) appoint any suitable person as a liquidator on any appropriate conditions;
- (b) decide where any residue of assets shall vest if the constitution and rules fail to do so.

Appeals from decisions of Registrar

57. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar made under this Part may appeal to the Labour Court, against that decision.

Publication in the Gazette

58.-(1) The Registrar shall publish a notice in the Gazette stating the following facts, that-

- (a) an organisation or federation has been registered;
- (b) the registration of any organisation or federation has been cancelled;
- (c) a change of a name or amalgamation affecting any registered organisation or federation has been registered;
- (d) a registered organisation or federation has been dissolved.

(2) Where the notice referred to in subsection (1) deals with registration of an organisation or federation, it shall contain a statement to the effect that, any person may view the constitution of that organisation or federation at the Registrar's office.

PART V
ORGANISATIONAL RIGHTS

Interpretation

59. For the purposes of this Part-
“authorised representative” means an office bearer or official of a trade union or any other person authorised to represent the trade union;
“employer’s premises” includes any premises under the control of the employer where work is done or the employees are accommodated;
“labour laws” includes this Act and any other law relating to labour matters;
“registered trade union” includes two or more trade unions acting jointly;
“representative trade union” means a registered trade union that is the most representative trade union.

Access to employer’s
premises

60.-(1) Any authorised representative of a registered trade union shall be entitled to enter the employer’s premises in order to-

(2) A registered trade union may establish a field branch at any workplace where ten or more of its members are employed.

(3) The employer shall provide a union recognised in terms of section 67 reasonable and necessary facilities to conduct its activities at the workplace.

(4) The rights under this section shall be subject to any conditions as to time and place that are reasonable and necessary to safeguard life or property or to prevent undue disruption of work.

Deduction of trade union
dues

61.- (1) An employer shall deduct dues of a registered trade union from an employee’s wages if that employee has authorised the employer to do so in the prescribed form.

(2) The employer shall remit the deductions to the trade union within seven days after the end of the month in which the deductions are made.

(3) Where the employer fails to remit the union dues within the time specified in subsection (2) without reasonable grounds, the employer shall be liable to pay the union the equivalent of five percent of the total amount due for each day the dues remain un-remitted.

(4) An employee may revoke an authorisation by giving one month’s written notice to the employer and the trade union.

(5) Where an employee revokes any authorization under subsection (3), the employer shall cease to make any deductions after the expiry of the notice.

(6) With each monthly remittance, the employer shall give a registered trade union-

- (a) a list in the prescribed form of the names of the members in respect of whom deductions are required to be made;
- (b) a copy of any notice of revocation under subsection (3).

representation

62.-(1) A registered trade union shall be entitled to-

- (a) one trade union representative for one to nine members;
- (b) three representatives for ten to twenty members;
- (c) ten representatives for twenty one to one hundred members;
- (d) fifteen representatives work places with more than one hundred members.

(2) In workplace with more than one hundred members, at least five of the trade union representatives shall represent women employees, if any who are employed and belong to the union.

(3) The constitution of a registered trade union shall govern the election, terms of office and removal from office of a trade union representative.

(4) Trade union representatives shall perform the following functions-

- (a) to represent members in grievance and disciplinary hearings;
- (b) to make representations on behalf of members in respect of rules; health and safety and welfare;
- (c) to consult on productivity in the workplace;
- (d) to represent the trade union in enquiries and investigations conducted by inspectors in terms of any labour laws;
- (e) to monitor employer compliance with labour laws;
- (f) to perform trade union functions under the union's constitution;
- (g) to further good relations;
- (h) to perform any function or role agreed to by the employer.

(5) Trade union representatives shall be entitled to reasonable paid time off to perform any of the functions referred to in subsection (4).

(6) The employer shall disclose to the trade union representatives any information relevant to the performance of their functions.

(7) The provisions of section 70 relating to disclosure of relevant information shall mutatis mutandis apply to any disclosure prescribed in subsection (6).

(8) The rights under this section are subject to any reasonable conditions to ensure the orderly exercise of the rights and that work is not unduly interrupted.

Leave for trade
union activities

63. The employer shall grant reasonable paid leave to-
(a) trade union representatives referred to in section 62 to attend training courses relevant to their functions;

- (b) office bearers of-
 - (i) a registered trade union, to perform the functions of their office;
 - (ii) a registered federation, to which the representative union belongs, to perform the functions of their office.

Procedure for exercising organisational rights

64.-(1) Any registered trade union may notify an employer in the prescribed form that it seeks to exercise a right conferred under this Part.

(2) Within 30 days of the receipt of a notice under subsection (1), the employer shall meet with the trade union to conclude a collective agreement granting the right and regulating the manner in which the right shall to be exercised.

(3) Where there is no agreement or the employer fails to meet with the trade union within 30 days, the union may refer the dispute to the Commission for mediation.

(4) Where the mediation fails to resolve the dispute, the trade union may refer the dispute to the Labour Court which shall make appropriate orders.

(5) Any dispute over the interpretation or application of an order made under this section shall be referred to the Labour Court for decision.

Termination of organisational rights

65. Where a trade union materially breaches the terms and conditions for the exercise of organisational rights, the employer-

- (a) may refer the issue to the Commission for mediation;
- (b) if the mediation fails to resolve the issue, may apply to the Labour Court to-
 - (i) terminate any of the organisational rights granted to the trade union under a collective agreement; or
 - (ii) withdraw an order made under section 64.

(2) A Labour Court making a decision under this section may make any appropriate order including-

- (a) requiring the union to take measures to ensure compliance with the conditions for the exercise of a right;
- (b) suspending the exercise of a right for a period of time;
- (c) terminating the organisational rights contained in a collective agreement or order made under section 64.

PART VI COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Interpretation

66. For the purposes of this Part -

- (a) a “bargaining unit”-

- (i) means any unit of employees in respect of which a registered trade union is recognised, or is entitled to be recognised, as the exclusive bargaining agent in terms of this Part;
- (ii) includes a unit of employees employed by more than one employer;
- (b) a “recognised trade union” means a trade union recognised by a collective agreement or in respect of an order made by the Labour Court under the provisions of section 67;
- (c) a “registered trade union” includes two or more registered trade unions acting jointly.

Recognition as exclusive bargaining agent of employees

67.-(1) A registered trade union that represents the majority of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit shall be entitled to be recognised as the exclusive bargaining agent of the employees in that unit.

(2) An employer or employers’ association may not recognise a trade union as an exclusive bargaining agent unless the trade union is registered and represents the majority of the employees in the bargaining unit.

(3) A registered trade union may notify the employer or employers’ association in the prescribed form that it shall seek recognition as the exclusive bargaining agent within an appropriate bargaining unit.

(4) Within thirty days of the notice prescribed in subsection (3), an employer shall meet to conclude a collective agreement recognising the trade union.

(5) Where there is no agreement or the employer fails to meet with the trade union within the thirty days, the union may refer the dispute to the Commission for mediation. The period of thirty days may be extended by agreement.

(6) If the mediation fails to resolve the dispute, the trade union or the employer may refer the dispute to the Labour Court for decision.

(7) The Labour Court may decide any dispute over the representativeness of the trade union by arranging any appropriate person to conduct a ballot of the affected employees.

(8) In determining the appropriateness of a bargaining unit, the Labour Court shall -

- (a) consider the following:
 - (i) the wishes of the parties;
 - (ii) the bargaining history of the parties;
 - (iii) the extent of union organisation among the employees of the employer or employers;
 - (iv) the employee similarity of interest;
 - (v) the organisational structure of the employer or employers;
 - (vi) the different functions and processes of the employer or employers and the degree of integration;
 - (vii) the geographic location of the employer or the employers;

- (b) promote orderly and effective collective bargaining with a minimum of fragmentation of an employer's organisational structure.

(9) Any dispute over the interpretation or application of an order made under this section shall -

- (a) be referred to the Commission for mediation; and
- (b) if the mediation fails to resolve the dispute, be referred to the Labour Court for a decision.

(10) Nothing in this section precludes registered trade unions, employers, and registered employers' associations from establishing their own collective bargaining arrangements by collective agreement.

Duty to bargain
in good faith

68.-(1) An employer or employers' association shall bargain in good faith with a recognised trade union.

(2) A recognised trade union shall bargain in good faith with the employer or employers' association that has recognised it or is required to recognise it under the provisions of section 67.

Withdrawal of recognition

69.-(1) Where a recognised trade union ceases to represent the majority of the employees in the bargaining unit, the employer shall,

- (a) give the trade union notice to acquire a majority within three months;
- (b) withdraw exclusive recognition, if it fails to acquire that majority at the expiry of the three months.

(2) Where a recognised union has ceased to represent the majority in the bargaining unit, any other trade union may request for new elections in order to demonstrate that the union has become the most representative:

Provided that no application for the withdrawal of recognition of a union can be made within six months of the union being recognised as the exclusive collective bargaining agent.

(3) If a party to a collective agreement prescribed in section 67(10), or a party subject to a recognition order, materially breaches the agreement or order, the other party may apply to Labour Court to have recognition withdrawn by -

- (a) terminating the recognition agreement;
- (b) rescinding the recognition order.

(4) The Labour Court may decide any dispute over the representativeness of the trade union by arranging any appropriate person to conduct a ballot of the affected employees.

(5) The Labour Court may make any appropriate order including -

- (a) giving the trade union an opportunity to become representative;
- (b) altering the bargaining unit;
- (c) suspending recognition for a period of time;

- (d) withdrawing recognition.

Obligation to disclose relevant information

70.-(1) An employer that has recognised a trade union under this Part shall allow the union to engage effectively in collective bargaining.

(2) An employer shall not be obliged to disclose information that -

- (a) is legally privileged;
- (b) the employer cannot disclose without contravening a law or an order of court;
- (c) is confidential and, if disclosed, may cause substantial harm to an employee or the employer;
- (d) is private personal information relating to an employee without employee's consent.

(3) A trade union that receives confidential or private personal information under this section -

- (a) shall not disclose the information to any person other than its members and advisors;
- (b) shall take reasonable measures to ensure that the information disclosed is kept confidential.

(4) If there is a dispute over disclosure of information, any party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Commission for mediation.

(5) If the mediation fails, any party may refer the dispute to the Labour Court for decision.

(6) In making any decision, the Labour Court may -

- (a) hold the proceedings in camera;
- (b) take into account any previous breaches of confidentiality by the trade union or its members;
- (c) order an employer to disclose any confidential information if, on balance, the effect of the non-disclosure may seriously impede the union's ability -
 - (i) to bargain effectively;
 - (ii) to represent employees effectively;
- (d) order the disclosure of information on terms designed to limit any harm that may be caused by disclosure;
- (e) order the trade union to pay damages for any breach of confidentiality;
- (f) suspend or withdraw the right to disclosure.

Binding nature of collective agreements
Act No.8 of 2006

71.-(1) Collective agreements shall be in writing and signed by the parties.

(2) A collective agreement shall be binding on the last signature unless the agreement states otherwise.

(3) A collective agreement shall be binding on -

- (a) the parties to the agreement;
- (b) any members of the parties to the agreement;
- (c) any employees who are not members of a trade union party to the agreement if the trade union is recognised as the exclusive bargaining agent of those employees under section 67.

(4) A collective agreement shall continue to be binding on employers or employees who were party to the agreement at the time of its commencement and includes resigned members from that trade union or employer association.

(5) A collective agreement becomes binding on employers and employees who become members of the parties to the agreement after its commencement.

(6) Unless a collective agreement provides otherwise, any party to an agreement may terminate the agreement on reasonable notice.

(7) The parties to a collective agreement shall be required to lodge a copy of the agreement with the Labour Commissioner failure of which shall constitute an offence.

Agency shop
Agreements

72.-(1) An agreement that compels an employee to become a member of a trade union is not enforceable.

(2) A recognised trade union and employer may conclude a collective agreement providing for an agency shop.

(3) The requirements for a binding agency shop agreement are:

(a) the agreement applies to employees in the bargaining unit only;

(b) employees who are not members of the trade union are not compelled to become members;

(c) any agency fee deducted from the remuneration of an employee, who is not a member, is equivalent to, or less than, the union dues deducted by the employer from the remuneration of a member;

(d) the amount deducted from both members and non-members shall be paid into a separate account administered by the trade union;

(e) the monies in that account may only be used to advance or defend the socio-economic interests of the employees in that workplace and shall not be used to pay -

(i) an affiliation fee to a political party; or

(ii) any contributions to a political party of person standing for political office.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law or contract, an employer may deduct an agency fee under an agency shop agreement that complies with the provisions of this section from an employee's wages without the consent of that employee.

(5) A trade union party to an agency shop agreement shall -

(a) appoint a registered auditor to audit the account prescribed in subsection (3) (d) annually;

(b) submit the auditor's report to the Labour Commissioner and to the Registrar within thirty days of the date of the report;

and

- (c) permit any interested person to inspect the report at the union's offices during office hours.
- (6) A report by an auditor appointed by a trade union under this section shall include an opinion on whether the provisions of this section have been complied with.
 - (7) An agency shop agreement shall be -
 - (a) suspended for so long as the trade union is not representative;
 - (b) terminated once recognition is withdrawn under section 69.
 - (8) If an agency shop agreement is suspended or terminated, the provisions of this section shall continue to apply in respect of any money remaining in the account prescribed in subsection (3)(d).
 - (9) For the purposes of this section, "agency shop" means a union security arrangement in terms of which employees in a bargaining unit, who are not members of the recognised trade union, are required to pay an agency fee to the trade union.

Workers' participation agreement

73.-(1) A recognised trade union and an employer or an employers' association may conclude a collective agreement establishing a forum for workers participation in a workplace.

(2) If a registered trade union, employer or employers' association wishes to establish a forum for workers' participation in any workplace, the union, employer or association may request the assistance of the Commission to facilitate discussions between the union, employer or association.

(3) The Commission shall facilitate any discussions concerning the establishment of a forum for workers participation in any workplace taking into account any code of good practice published by the Council on workers participation.

Disputes concerning collective agreements

- 74. Unless the parties to a collective agreement agree otherwise -
- (a) a dispute concerning the application, interpretation or implementation of a collective agreement shall be referred to the Commission for mediation; and
 - (b) if the mediation fails, any party may refer the dispute to the Labour Court for a decision.

PART VII STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

Right to strike and to lockout

- 75. Subject to the provisions contained in this Part -
- (a) every employee has the right to strike in respect of a dispute of interest; and
 - (b) every employer has the right to lockout in respect of a dispute of interest.

Restrictions on the right to strike or lockout

76.-(1) No person shall take part in a strike or a lock out or in any way conduct himself in a manner contemplating or in furtherance of a strike or lockout if-

- (a) subject to subsection (2), that person is engaged in an essential service referred to in section 77;
- (b) that person is engaged in a minimum service prescribed in section 79;
- (c) that person is bound by an agreement that requires the issue in dispute to be referred to arbitration;
- (d) that person is bound by a collective agreement or arbitration award that regulates the issue in dispute;
- (e) that person is bound by a wage determination that regulates the issue in dispute during the first year of that determination;
- (f) that person is a magistrate, a prosecutor or other court personnel;
- (g) the issue in dispute is a complaint;
- (h) the procedures prescribed in sections 80, 81 and 82 have not been followed.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(a), a person engaged in an essential service may strike or lockout if -

- (a) there is a collective agreement providing for minimum services during a strike or lockout; and
- (b) that agreement has been approved under section 77 by the Essential Services Committee.

(3) The following conduct associated with strikes and lockouts is prohibited:

- (a) picketing –
 - (i) in support of a strike; or
 - (ii) in opposition to a lawful lockout;
- (b) use of replacement labour in a lockout or a lawful strike;
- (c) locking employers in the premises;
- (d) preventing employers from entering the premises.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “replacement labour” means taking into employment any person to continue or maintain production during a strike or a lockout. It does not include the deployment of an employee to do the work of an employee on strike or subject to a lockout provided that the deployment is with the consent of that employee.

Essential
services

77.-(1) For the purposes of this section, “service” includes any part of a service.

(2) The following services are essential services:

- (a) water and sanitation;
- (b) electricity;
- (c) health services and associated laboratory services;
- (d) fire-fighting services;
- (e) air traffic control and civil aviation telecommunications;
- (f) any transport services required for the provision of these services.

(3) In addition to the services designated in subsection (2), the Essential Services Committee may designate a service as essential if the interruption of that service endangers the personal safety or health of the population or any part of it.

(4) Before the Essential Services Committee designates an essential service under subsection (3), it shall -

- (a) give notice in the prescribed manner of the investigation inviting interested parties to make representations;
- (b) conduct an investigation in the prescribed manner;
- (c) make any written representations available for inspection;
- (d) hold a public hearing at which the interested parties may make oral representations; and
- (e) consider those representations.

(5) If the Essential Services Committee designates a service as an essential service, it shall publish a notice to that effect in the Gazette.

(6) The Essential Services Committee may vary or cancel a designation made under this section in accordance with the procedure set out in subsections (4) and (5) mutatis mutandis.

(7) Any party to a dispute as to whether or not a service is an essential service or an employer or an employee is engaged in an essential service shall refer the dispute to the Essential Services Committee for determination.

(8) The party who refers the dispute to the Essential Services Committee shall satisfy the Committee that a copy of the dispute has been served on all the other parties to the dispute.

(9) The Essential Services Committee shall determine the dispute as soon as possible.

Disputes
of interest in essential
services

78.-(1) Unless a collective agreement provides otherwise –

- (a) any party to a dispute of interest in an essential service may refer the dispute to the Commission for mediation;
- (b) if the mediation fails, any party to the dispute may refer the dispute to arbitration by the Commission.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply if -

- (a) the parties are bound by a collective agreement providing for minimum services during a strike or lockout; and
- (b) the Essential Services Committee has approved that agreement in terms of section 79(2).

Minimum
during a strike or lockout

79.-(1) The parties to a collective agreement may agree to the provision of minimum services during a strike or a lockout.

(2) Any party to a collective agreement that provides for minimum services during a strike or lockout in an essential service may apply in the prescribed manner to the Essential Services Committee for approval of that agreement.

- (3) An employer may apply in the prescribed manner to the Essential Services Committee for the designation of a minimum service if -
- (a) a minimum service is necessary to prevent damage to property, machinery or plant during a strike or lawful lockout; and
 - (b) there is no collective agreement providing for minimum services during a strike or lockout.

Procedure for engaging in a lawful strike

80.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, employees may engage in a lawful strike if –

- (a) the dispute is a dispute of interest;
- (b) the dispute has been referred in the prescribed form to the Commission for mediation;
- (c) the dispute remains unresolved at the end of period of mediation provided under section 86(4) read with subsections (1) and (2) of section 87;
- (d) the strike is called by a trade union, a ballot has been conducted under the union's constitution and a majority of those who voted were in favour of the strike; and
- (e) after the applicable period referred to in paragraph (c), they or their trade union have given forty eight hours notice to their employer of their intention to strike.

(2) If the dispute relates to the unilateral alteration of terms and conditions of employment, the employees and the trade union, may require the employer in the referral of the dispute under subsection (1) -

- (a) not to implement any proposed change to terms and conditions; or
- (b) if the employer has implemented the change, to restore the terms and conditions of employment that applied before the change.

(3) If the employer does not comply with the requirement referred to in subsection (2) within forty eight hours of service of the referral on the employer, the employees and trade union may strike without complying with paragraphs (c) to (e) of subsection (1).

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a trade union and an employer or employers' association from agreeing to their own strike procedure in a collective agreement, in which case the provisions of that agreement shall apply and the provisions of subsections (1) to (3) shall not apply.

Procedure for engaging in a secondary strike

81.-(1) “Secondary strike” means a strike that is –

- (a) in support of a lawful strike (the “primary strike”) by other employees against their employer (the “primary employer”); or
- (b) in opposition to a lockout (the “primary lockout”) imposed by another employer (the “primary employer”) against its employees.

- (2) A trade union may only call a secondary strike if -
 - (a) fourteen days notice of the commencement of the secondary strike has been given to the secondary employer;
 - (b) there is a relationship between the secondary and primary employer that may permit the exercise of pressure;
 - (c) the secondary strike is proportional taking into account -
 - (i) the effect of the strike on the secondary employer;
 - (ii) the possible effect that the strike may have on resolving the dispute giving rise to the primary strike or primary lockout.
- (3) Employees engaged in the following services are prohibited from engaging in a secondary strike:
 - (a) the essential services referred to in section 77 in respect of which there is no approved collective agreement as prescribed in section 79(2); or
 - (b) agreed or determined minimum services as prescribed in section 79.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall prevent a trade union and an employer or an employers' association from agreeing to their own requirements and procedure in a collective agreement, in which case the provisions of that agreement shall apply and the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply.

Procedure for engaging in a lawful lockout

- 82.-(1) Subject to subsection (2), an employer may engage in a lawful lockout if -
- (a) the dispute is a dispute of interest;
 - (b) the dispute has been referred in the prescribed form to the Commission for mediation;
 - (c) the dispute remains unresolved at the end of the period of mediation prescribed in section 86 read with section 87;
 - (d) after the applicable period referred to in paragraph (c), the employer or employers' association has given forty eight hours notice to the employees or their trade union of the intention to lockout.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall prevent a trade union and an employer or an employers' association from agreeing to their own procedure in a collective agreement, in which case the provisions of that agreement shall apply and the provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply.

Nature of protection of a lawful strike or lockout

- 83.-(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, including the common law, a lawful strike or lawful lockout shall not be -
- (a) a breach of contract;
 - (b) a tort;
 - (c) a criminal offence.

(2) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee for -

- (a) participating in a lawful strike; or
- (b) not accepting an employer's demand in a lockout.

(3) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted against any person for participating in a lawful strike or lawful lockout.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), an employer shall not be obliged to remunerate an employee for services that the employee does not render during a lawful strike or lawful lockout, however -

- (a) the employer shall continue to make its contribution and the employee's contributions to any funds that the employee is required to belong to by law or under the contract of employment during the strike or lockout;
- (b) if the employer provides accommodation, the provision of food or other basic amenities of life, the employer shall continue to provide that accommodation, food or amenities during the strike or lockout;
- (c) after the end of the strike or lockout, the employer may-
 - (i) deduct any of the employee's contributions referred to in paragraph (a) from the employee's remuneration;
 - (ii) deduct the agreed monetary value of the accommodation, food or amenities from the employee's remuneration with the consent of the employee.

(5) Where an employee does not consent to the deduction prescribed in subsection (4)(c)(ii), the employer may refer the dispute to mediation.

(6) Where the dispute referred to in subsection (5) is not resolved, the employer may refer it to the Labour Court for a decision.

(7) Nothing in subsection (4) shall prevent a trade union or employer or employers' association from concluding a collective agreement that regulates the matters dealt with in that subsection differently.

Strikes and lockouts not in compliance with this Part

84.-(1) Where a strike or lockout is not in compliance with this Act, or a trade union or employer or employers' association engages in prohibited conduct, the Labour Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction -

- (a) to issue an injunction to restrain any person from -
 - (i) participating in an unlawful strike or lockout;
 - (ii) engaging in any prohibited conduct;
- (b) to order the payment of just and equitable compensation for any loss attributable to the strike, lockout or conduct, having regard to -
 - (i) the degree of fault;
 - (ii) the cause of the strike, lockout or conduct;
 - (iii) any prior history of non-compliance;
 - (iv) the ability to pay;

- (v) the extent of the harm;
- (vi) the interests of collective bargaining;
- (vii) the duration of the strike, lockout or conduct.

(2) The Labour Court may not issue an injunction unless forty eight hours notice of the application has been given to the respondent.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Court may grant a shorter period on good cause and only if the respondent is given a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(4) Other than in exceptional circumstances, the Labour Court may not make an order of compensation that may cause a trade union, employer or employer association to become bankrupt.

Protest action

85.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), an employee may take part in protest action if -

- (a) the protest action has been called by a registered trade union or registered federation of trade unions;
- (b) the union or federation has served a notice on the Council stating-
 - (i) the reasons for the protest action; and
 - (ii) the duration and form of the protest action;
- (c) thirty days has elapsed from the date the notice was served; and
- (d) the union or federation has given at least fourteen days notice of the commencement of the protest action.

(2) Employees engaged in the following services are prohibited from engaging in protest action:

- (a) the essential services referred to in section 77 in respect of which there is no approved collective agreement as prescribed in section 79(2); or
- (b) agreed or determined minimum services as prescribed in section 79.

(3) The Council shall convene a meeting within thirty days of the notice to -

- (a) to resolve the matter giving rise to the protest action; and
- (b) if unable to resolve the matter, secure an agreement with the trade unions or federation of trade unions calling for the protest action on the duration and form of the protest action in order to minimise the harm that may be caused by the protest action.

(4) In order to achieve the objects prescribed in subsection (3), the Council may -

- (a) establish a tripartite committee to perform its functions under the subsection (3) ;
- (b) appoint a mediator after consultation with the Commission to mediate;
- (c) apply to the Labour Court for a declaratory order prescribed in subsection (5).

(5) Any person who is likely to be, or has been, affected by the protest action may apply to the Labour Court for -

- (a) an order restraining any person from taking part in protest action or in any conduct in contemplation or furtherance of an action that does not comply with the provisions of subsections (1) and (2);
- (b) a declaratory order on the proportionality of any proposed action taking into account -
 - (i) the nature and the duration of the protest action;
 - (ii) the importance of the reasons for the protest action; and
 - (iii) the steps taken by the union or the federation to minimise the harm caused by the protest action.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), any person who takes part in protest action that complies with this section enjoys the protections conferred on lawful strikes in terms of section 83.

(7) The protections conferred by subsection (6) on persons engaged in lawful protest action shall not apply to persons who do not comply with any declaratory order issued under paragraph (b) of subsection (5).

PART VIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Sub-Part A: Mediation

Referral
disputes for mediation
under this Act
Act No.8
of 2006
Sch.

86.-(1) Disputes referred to the Commission shall be in the prescribed form.

(2) The party who refers the dispute under subsection (1), shall satisfy the Commission that a copy of the referral has been served on the other parties to the dispute.

(3) On receipt of the referral made under subsection (1) the Commission shall -

- (a) appoint a mediator to mediate the dispute;
- (b) decide the time, date and place of the mediation hearing;
- (c) advise the parties to the dispute of the details stipulated in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(4) Subject to section 87, the mediator shall resolve the dispute within thirty days of the referral or any longer period to which the parties agree in writing.

(5) The mediator shall decide the manner in which the mediation shall be conducted and if necessary may require further meetings within the period referred to in subsection (4).

(6) In any mediation, a party to a dispute may be represented by -

- (a) a member or an official of that party's trade union or employers' association; or
- (b) an advocate;

- (c) a personal representative of the party's own choice.
- (7) Where the mediator fails to resolve a dispute within the period prescribed in subsection (4), a party to the dispute may -
 - (a) if the dispute is a dispute of interest, give notice of its intention to commence a strike or a lockout in accordance with sections 80 or 82;
 - (b) if the dispute is a complaint -
 - (i) refer the complaint to arbitration; or
 - (ii) refer the complaint to the Labour Court.
- (8) Notwithstanding the failure to resolve a dispute within the period stipulated in subsection (4), the mediator shall remain seized with the dispute until the dispute is settled and may convene meetings between the parties to the dispute in order to settle the dispute at any time before or during any strike, lockout, arbitration or adjudication.

Consequences of not attending a mediation hearing

- 87.-(1) Where the employees or a trade union refer a dispute of interest to the Commission under section 86, the mediator may -
- (a) extend the period stipulated section 86(4) by a further thirty days if the employees or union fail to attend the hearing arranged by the Commission;
 - (b) shorten the period stipulated in section 86(4) if the employer or employers' association party to the dispute fail to attend the hearing.
- (2) Where an employer or an employers' association refers a dispute of interest to the Commission under section 86, the mediator may -
- (a) extend the period stipulated section 86(4) by a further thirty days if the employer or employer association fails to attend the hearing arranged by the Commission;
 - (b) shorten the period stipulated in section 86(4) if the employees or trade union party to the dispute fail to attend the hearing.
- (3) In respect of a complaint referred under this Act, the mediator may -
- (a) dismiss the complaint if the party who referred the complaint fails to attend a mediation hearing;
 - (b) decide the complaint if the other party to the complaint fails to attend a mediation hearing.
- (4) The decision made under this section may be enforced in the Labour Court as a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction;
- (5) The Commission may reverse a decision made under this section if -
- (a) application is made in the prescribed manner; and
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied that there are good grounds for failing to attend the hearing.

Sub-Part B: Arbitration

Resolving disputes by compulsory arbitration
Act No.8
of 2006
Sch.

- 88.-(1) For the purposes of this section, a dispute means –
- (a) a dispute of interest if the parties to the dispute are engaged in an essential service;
 - (b) a complaint over -
 - (i) the fairness or lawfulness of an employee's termination of employment;
 - (ii) any other contravention of this Act or any other labour law or breach of contract or any employment or labour matter falling under common law, tortious liability and vicarious liability in which the amount claimed is below the pecuniary jurisdictions of the High Court;
 - (iii) any dispute referred to arbitration by the Labour Court under section 94(3)(a)(ii).
- (2) If the parties fail to resolve a dispute referred to mediation under section 86 the Commission shall -
- (a) appoint an arbitrator to decide the dispute;
 - (b) determine the time, date and place of the arbitration hearing; and
 - (c) advise the parties to the dispute of the details stipulated in paragraphs (a) or (b).
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) shall prevent the Commission from -
- (a) appointing an arbitrator before the dispute has been mediated;
 - (b) determining the time, date and place of the arbitration hearing, which date may coincide with the date of the mediation hearing;
 - (c) advising the parties to the dispute of the details stipulated in paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (4) The arbitrator -
- (a) may conduct the arbitration in a manner that the arbitrator considers appropriate in order to determine the dispute fairly and quickly;
 - (b) shall deal with the substantial merits of the dispute with the minimum of legal formalities;
- (5) Subject to the discretion of the arbitrator as to the appropriate form of the proceedings, a party to the dispute may give evidence, call witnesses, question witnesses, and present arguments.
- (6) If the parties to the dispute consent, the arbitrator may suspend proceedings and resolve the dispute through mediation.
- (7) In any arbitration hearing, a party to a dispute may be represented by -
- (a) member or official of that party's trade union or employers' association;
 - (b) an advocate; or
 - (c) a personal representative of the party's own choice.

(8) An arbitrator may make any appropriate award but may not make an order for costs unless a party or a person representing a party acted in a frivolous or vexatious manner.

(9) Within thirty days of the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator shall issue an award with reasons signed by the arbitrator.

Effect of an arbitration award

89.-(1) An arbitration award made under this Act shall be binding on the parties to the dispute.

(2) An arbitration award made under this Act may be served and executed in the Labour Court as if it were a decree of a court of law.

Correction of arbitration awards

90. An arbitrator who has made an award under section 88(8) may, on application or on his own motion, correct in the award any clerical mistake or error arising from any accidental slip or omission.

Revision of arbitration award

91.-(1) Any party to an arbitration award made under section 88(8) who alleges a defect in any arbitration proceedings under the auspices of the Commission may apply to the Labour Court for a decision to set aside the arbitration award -

- (a) within six weeks of the date that the award was served on the applicant unless the alleged defect involves improper procurement;
- (b) if the alleged defect involves improper procurement, within six weeks of the date that the applicant discovers that fact.

(2) The Labour Court may set aside an arbitration award made under this Act on grounds that -

- (a) there was a misconduct on the part of the arbitrator;
- (b) the award was improperly procured.

(3) The Labour Court may stay the enforcement of the award pending its decision.

(4) Where the award is set aside, the Labour Court may -

- (a) determine the dispute in the manner it considers appropriate;
- (b) make any order it considers appropriate about the procedures to be followed to determine the dispute.

Application of Arbitration Ordinance Cap. 15

92. The Arbitration Ordinance, does not apply to an arbitration conducted by the Commission.

Voluntary arbitration

93.-(1) Nothing in this Act prevents agreement to submit a dispute to arbitration.

(2) The provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance, shall apply to any agreed submission of a dispute to arbitration provided that -

- (a) notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of the Ordinance, any dispute may be submitted to arbitration;

- (b) any reference to the High Court in the Ordinance shall be interpreted as referring to the Labour Court.

Sub-Part C: Adjudication

Jurisdiction of the Labour
Court
Act No.8
of 2006
Sch.

94.-(1) Subject to the Constitution of the United Republic of Tanzania, 1977, the Labour Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the application, interpretation and implementation of the provisions of this Act over any employment or labour matter falling under common law, tortious liability, vicarious liability or breach of contract within the pecuniary jurisdiction of the High Court and to decide -

- (a) appeals from the decisions of the Registrar made under Part IV;
 - (b) reviews and revisions of -
 - (i) arbitrator's awards made under this Part;
 - (ii) decisions of the Essential Services Committee made under Part VII;
 - (c) reviews of decisions, codes, guidelines or regulations made by the Minister under this Act;
 - (d) complaints, other than those that are to be decided by arbitration under the provisions of this Act;
 - (e) any dispute reserved for decision by the Labour Court under this Act; and
 - (f) applications including -
 - (i) a declaratory order in respect of any provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) an injunction.
- (2) The Labour Court may refuse to hear a complaint if -
- (a) the complaint has not been referred to mediation by the Commission under section 86; or
 - (b) the provisions of that section have not been complied with; and
 - (c) the application is not urgent.
- (3) Where a party refers a dispute to the Labour Court, the Court may -
- (a) if it is a dispute that is required to be referred to the Labour Court in terms of this Act -
 - (i) decide the dispute; or
 - (ii) refer the dispute to the Commission to be decided by arbitration
 - (b) if it is a complaint that is required to be referred to arbitration -
 - (i) refer the complaint to the Commission for it to be dealt with under section 88 ;
 - (ii) decide the complaint provided that it may make an appropriate order as to costs.

(d) Sub-Part D: Dispute procedure in collective agreements

Dispute resolution procedures
in collective Agreements
Act No.8
of 2006

95.-(1) Nothing in this Part shall prevent a trade union on the one hand and an employer or employers' association on the other hand from concluding a collective agreement providing for the resolution of disputes not within of the provisions of this Part.

(2) A collective agreement may depart from the provisions of this Part provided that the disputes are mediated or arbitrated in an independent, neutral, expedited and professional manner.

(3) A person bound by a collective agreement prescribed in this section may not refer a dispute to the Commission under the provisions of this Part.

Provided that, any dispute which is not resolved shall be referred by any party to the dispute or the mediator or arbitrator to the Labour Court for adjudication, decision and execution.

(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), any resolution made or award passed by the mediator or arbitrator respectively, shall be binding on the parties and shall be executed as a decree of the Labour Court.

(5) On application, the Labour Court may set aside a provision of a collective agreement that does not comply with subsection (2).
