PART II

THE ANTI-CORRUPTION COMMISSION

4. (1) The Anti-Corruption Commission established under the repealed Act shall continue to exist as if established under this Act, and shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name and with power, subject to this Act, to do all such acts and things as a body corporate may, by law, do or perform.

(2) The provisions of the State Proceedings Act shall apply to civil proceedings by, or against, the Commission as if, for a reference to the State there were substituted a reference to the Commission.

(3) The provisions of the Schedule apply to the Commission.

5. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the Commission shall not, in the performance of its functions, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

- 6. (1) The functions of the Commission are to—
- (a) prevent and take necessary and effective measures for the prevention of corruption in public and private bodies, including, in particular, measures for—
  - (i) examining the practices and procedures of public and private bodies in order to facilitate the discovery of opportunities of corrupt practices and secure the revision of methods of work or procedures which in the opinion of the Commission, may be prone or conducive to corrupt practices;
  - (ii) advising public bodies and private bodies on ways and means of preventing corrupt practices, and on changes in methods of work or procedures of such public bodies and private bodies compatible with the effective performance of their duties, which the Commission considers necessary to reduce the likelihood of the occurrence of corrupt practices;

Autonomy of Commission

Functions of Commission

- (iii) disseminating information on the evil and dangerous effects of corrupt practices on society;
- (iv) creation of committees in institutions for monitoring corruption in the institution; and
- (v) enlisting and fostering public confidence and support against corrupt practices;
- (b) initiate, receive and investigate complaints of alleged or suspected corrupt practices, and, subject to the directions
  - of the Director of Public Prosecutions, prosecute
    - (i) offences under this Act; and
    - (ii) such other offence under any other written law as may have come to the notice of the Commission during the investigation of an offence under this Act:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be considered as precluding any public prosecutor from prosecuting, subject to the directions of the Director of Public Prosecutions, any offence under this Act which has come to the notice of the police during investigation of an offence under any written law;

- (c) investigate any conduct of any public officer which, in the opinion of the Commission, may be connected with or conducive to corrupt practices;
- (d) be the lead agency in matters of corruption;
- (e) co-operate with other institutions authorised to investigate, prosecute, prevent and combat corrupt practices so as to implement an integrated approach to the eradication of corruption;
- (f) consult, co-operate and exchange information with appropriate bodies of other countries that are authorised to conduct inquiries or investigations in relation to corrupt practices; and
- (g) do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of its functions.

(2) The Commission may establish specialised units to investigate and deal with such matters as the Commission considers appropriate.

Instructions by Commission 7. (1) The Commission may instruct a public body on practices and procedures that are necessary to prevent, reduce or eliminate the occurrence of corrupt practices.

(2) A public body shall, not later than ninety days from the receipt of the instructions from the Commission pursuant to subsection (1), effect the necessary changes in its practices and procedures.

(3) A public body which considers that the changes in practices and procedures contained in the instructions from the Commission shall be impracticable or otherwise disadvantageous to the effective discharge of its functions shall, within thirty days of the receipt of the instructions, make representations to the Director-General in writing.

(4) The Commission may, after considering the representations of a public body made under subsection (3), confirm, vary or cancel the instruction given to the public body.

(5) The head of a public body which fails to comply with the instructions of the Commission commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both.

(6) In addition to the penalty prescribed in subsection (5), the head of the public body which fails to comply with the instructions of the Commission shall be subject to disciplinary action including dismissal from office by the relevant authority.

8. (1) The Commission may, after an investigation into an offence under this Act, depending on the findings made, make such recommendation as it considers necessary to an appropriate authority.

(2) An appropriate authority shall, within thirty days from the date of receipt of the recommendation of the Commission under subsection (1), make a report to the Commission on the action taken by the appropriate authority.

9. (1) There shall be a Director-General of the Commission who shall be the chief executive officer of the Commission.

(2) The Director-General shall be appointed by the President, subject to ratification by the National Assembly, on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.

(3) A person is not qualified to be appointed as Director-General unless the person is qualified to be appointed judge of the High Court.

(4) The Director-General shall be responsible for —

(a) the control, direction, management and administration of the Commission; and

(b) the implementation of any policy matters referred to the Director-General by the Board.

(5) The Director-General may, subject to any specific or general direction of the Board, make standing orders providing for—

(a) the control, direction and administration of the Commission;

Reports and recommendation by Commission

Director-General

- (b) the discipline, training, classification and promotion of officers of the Commission;
- (c) the duties of officers of the Commission; and
- (d) such other matters as the Director-General may consider necessary or expedient for preventing the abuse of power or neglect of duty by officers or other staff.

(6) The Director-General shall not, while holding the office of Director-General, discharge the duties of any other office of emolument in the Republic.

Tenure of office of Director-General 10. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person appointed Director-General shall vacate that office on attaining the age of sixty-five years:

Provided that the President may permit a person who has attained that age to continue in office for such period as may be necessary to enable that person to do anything in relation to proceedings that were commenced before the person attained that age.

(2) A person appointed Director-General may be removed from office for inability to perform the functions of office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or from any other cause, or for misbehaviour.

(3) If the President considers that the question of removing a person holding the office of Director-General from office ought to be investigated, then—

- (a) the President shall appoint a tribunal which shall consist of a Chairperson and not less than two other members, who hold or have held high judicial office;
- (b) the tribunal shall inquire into the matter and report on the facts thereof to the President and advise the President whether the person holding the office of Director-General ought to be removed from office under this section for incompetence or inability or for misbehaviour.

(4) Where a tribunal appointed under subsection (2) advises the President that a person holding the office of Director-General ought to be removed from office for incompetence or inability or for misbehaviour, the President shall remove the person from office.

(5) If the question of removing a person holding the office of Director-General from office has been referred to a tribunal under this section, the President may suspend that person from performing the functions of the person's office, and any such suspension may at any time be revoked by the President and shall in any case cease to have effect if the tribunal advises that the person ought not to be removed from office.

(6) The Director-General may resign by giving three months' notice, in writing, to the President, of the Director-General's intention to resign.

(7) The Director-General shall, before taking office, take an oath or affirmation before the President in the prescribed manner and form.

11. (1) The Director-General may, for the performance of the Commission's functions under this Act—

- (a) authorise, in writing, any officer of the Commission to conduct an inquiry or investigation into alleged or suspected offences under this Act;
- (b) require the head, chairperson, manager, chief executive officer or person in charge of any public body, to produce or furnish within such time as may be specified by the Director-General, any document or a certified true copy of any document which is in that person's possession or under that person's control and which the Director-General considers necessary for the conduct of an investigation into alleged or suspected offences under this Act:
  - Provided that if the document is classified or falls under the State Security Act, the Commission may apply to a judge in chambers to determine whether the document is likely to —
    - (i) prejudice the security, defence or international relations of the Republic; or
    - (ii) involve the disclosure of any matter or deliberations of a secret or confidential nature of the Government; or
- (c) require any person to answer, to the best of that person's knowledge and belief, questions with respect to the whereabouts or existence of any documents or records that may be relevant to an investigation.

(2) In determining an application under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the court may —

(a) order the release of the document; or

(b) confirm that the release of the document will prejudice the security, defence or international relations of the Republic or involve the disclosure of a confidential matter of Government.

(3) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, the Director-General may, where the Director-General has reasonable grounds to believe that a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under this Act is likely to leave Zambia,

Cap. 111

Powers of Director-General require such person to surrender their travel document or any other document in that person's possession.

(4) The Commission shall, where a person surrenders that person's travel document pursuant to subsection (1), return the document after the investigation of the offence is completed, and if no criminal proceedings are to be instituted.

(5) A person who is aggrieved with the decision of the Director-General made pursuant to subsection (1) may apply to the High Court.

(6) The High Court may, upon hearing an application made under subsection (3), reverse, vary or dismiss the application or make such other order as the court considers appropriate.

(7) A person who fails to comply with the decision of the Director-General under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.

Deputy Director-General 12. (1) The President shall appoint a Deputy Director-General on such terms and conditions as the President may determine.

(2) The Deputy Director-General shall assist the Director-General in performing the Director-General's duties under this Act.

(3) A person shall not qualify for appointment as Deputy Director-General unless the person is qualified to be appointed judge of the High Court.

(4) If the office of the Director-General is vacant or the Director-General is absent from duty or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of that office, the Deputy Director-General shall, save where the President otherwise directs, act as Director-General.

(5) If both the Director-General and the Deputy Director-General are absent from duty or unable for any other reason to perform the functions of their offices, the President shall appoint another person to act as Director-General.

(6) The Deputy Director-General may resign by giving three months' notice, in writing, to the President, of the Deputy Director-General's intention to resign.

(7) The Deputy Director-General shall, on appointment, take an oath or affirmation before the President in the prescribed manner and form.

13. (1) The Commission may appoint investigating officers, the Secretary and such other staff of the Commission, on such terms and conditions as the Commission may determine, to assist the Director-General in the performance of the Director-General's functions under this Act.

Investigating officers, Secretary and other staff of Commission (2) The Secretary shall be in charge of the general administration and shall keep the records of the Commission.

(3) An officer shall have such powers, functions and duties as provided for, or as delegated to the officer, by the Director-General under this Act.

(4) The Director-General may, if satisfied that it is in the best interest of the Commission, terminate the appointment of any officer of the Commission and shall assign the reasons therefor, subject to any directions by the Commission.

(5) A person aggrieved with the decision of the Director-General to terminate that person's employment pursuant to subsection (3) may appeal against that decision to the Board.

(6) The Commission may, in the exercise of its functions, engage the services of such advisors and experts as it considers necessary.

(7) The Secretary, advisors, experts and other members of staff of the Commission shall, on appointment, take an oath or affirmation before the Director-General in the prescribed manner and form.

14. (1) The Director-General, Deputy Director-General, officers and Secretary shall, before taking office under this Act —

- (a) in the case of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General and Secretary, submit to the Chief Justice a written declaration, in the prescribed form, of all the assets they own or liabilities owed to them; and
- (b) in the case of the other staff of the Commission, submit to a magistrate a written declaration, in the prescribed form, of all the assets they own or liabilities owed to them.

15. (1) The Director-General shall issue to an officer of the Commission an identity card which shall be prima facie evidence of the officer's appointment as such.

(2) An officer shall, in performing any function under this Act—

- (a) be in possession of the identity card referred to in subsection (1); and
- (b) show the identity card to any person who requests to see it or is subject to an investigation under this Act.

16. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by, or on behalf of, the Commission, publish or disclose to any person otherwise than in the course of such person's duties, the contents of any document, communication or information which relates to, or which has come to that person's knowledge in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred Prohibition of disclosure of information to unauthorised persons thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person who having information which to that person's knowledge has been published or disclosed in contravention of subsection (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates such information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

Immunity of staff

17. (1) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall lie against an officer or member of staff of the Commission for anything done in good faith in the exercise of the officer's or member of staff's functions under this Act.

(2) For the avoidance of any doubt, nothing in this section shall protect any officer or member of staff for anything done outside the functions of office.

(3) An officer or member of staff of the Commission who commits an offence under this Act or any other written law is liable to prosecution for that offence.

(4) An officer of the Zambia Police Force, the Drug Enforcement Commission or any other law enforcement agency may, where an officer or a member of staff of the Commission commits an offence under this Act or any other written law, investigate the offence.

Impersonation and procurement of officer 18. A person who pretends to—

- (a) be an officer of the Commission or to have any of the powers of an officer under this Act, or under any authorisation or warrant issued under this Act; or
- (b) be able to procure an officer of the Commission to do or refrain from doing anything in connection with the duties of such officer; commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period of not less than two years.

Provided that a person shall not be searched except by a police officer, or officer of the Commission or by any person authorised in that behalf by a police officer or officer of the Commission, of the same sex.

39. (1) A person who aids, abets or counsels or conspires with any person to commit an offence under this Part, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a sentence as if that person committed the offence.

(2) A person who attempts to commit an offence under this Act commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a sentence as if that person committed the offence.

40. A person who is convicted of an offence under this Part, for which no penalty is provided, is liable—

- (a) upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years;
- (b) upon a second or subsequent conviction, to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years but not exceeding ten years; and
- (c) in addition to any other penalty imposed under this Act, to forfeiture to the State of any pecuniary resource, property, advantage, profit or gratification received in the commission of an offence under this Act.

41. Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Part, the court may, in addition to the sentence that it may impose under section forty, order the convicted person to pay to the rightful owner the amount or value, as determined by the court, of any gratification actually received by that person, and such order shall be deemed to form part of the sentence:

Provided that where, after reasonable inquiry, the rightful owner cannot be ascertained or traced, or where the rightful owner is implicated in the giving of the gratification, the court shall order that the amount or value thereof be paid into the general revenues of the Republic.

42. Any fine imposed under the provisions of this Part and the amount or value of any gratification ordered to be paid under section forty-five may be recovered in accordance with the provisions of sections three hundred and eight and three hundred and nine of the Criminal Procedure Code by distress and sale of the movable and immovable property of the person sentenced.

Cap. 88

43. (1) Where a person gives gratification to, or for, or on account of, an agent in contravention of any provision of this Act, the principal may recover, as a civil debt, the amount or value of such gratification from the agent, and the acquittal of the agent or such person in respect of an offence under this Part shall not operate as a bar to any proceedings for such recovery.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be deemed to prejudice or affect any right which any principal may have under any written law or rule to recover from the agent any money or property.

44. In any proceedings under this Act, a certificate by a Government valuation officer or other specialist valuer with respect to the value of any gratification or of any movable or immovable property shall be sufficient proof of such value, unless the contrary is proved.

45. A person convicted of an offence under this Part shall, by reason of such conviction, be disqualified for a period of ten years from the date of such conviction, from being elected or appointed to, or from holding or continuing to hold, any office or position in any public body.

46. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or unincorporate body, every director or manager of the body corporate or unincorporate body shall be liable, upon conviction, as if the director or manager had personally committed the offence, unless the director or manager proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act constituting the offence was done without the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director or manager or that the director or manager took reasonable steps to prevent the commission of the offence.

PART IV

INVESTIGATION OF CORRUPT PRACTICES

47. (1) A person who alleges that another person has engaged I or is about to engage in a corrupt practice may lodge a complaint with the Commission in the prescribed manner and form.

(2) The Commission may investigate a matter under this Act on receipt of a complaint or on its own initiative.

(3) The Commission may refer any offence that comes to its notice in the course of an investigation under subsection (2) to any other appropriate investigation authority or agency.

48. (1) The Director-General shall, upon receipt of a complaint under section forty-six, examine each alleged corrupt practice and decide whether or not an investigation in relation to the allegation is warranted.

Offences by body corporate or unincorporate body

Lodging of complaint

Consideration of complaint

(2) The Director-General may, in deciding whether to investigate an alleged corrupt practice, consider —

- (a) the seriousness of the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates;
- (b) whether or not the allegation is frivolous or vexatious;
- (c) whether or not the conduct or involvement to which the allegation relates is or has been the subject of an investigation or other action by any other appropriate authority under any other written law; and
- (d) whether or not, in all the circumstances, the carrying out of an investigation for the purpose of this Act in relation to the allegation will disclose the commission or likelihood of the commission of an offence under this Act.

(3) The Director-General shall, where the Director-General determines that an investigation into an allegation is warranted, decide whether the Commission shall carry out the investigation or whether the allegation should be referred to another appropriate authority for investigation or action.

(4) The Director-General may, for purposes of performing the functions under this section—

- (a) make such preliminary inquiry as the Director-General considers necessary; and
- (b) consult any other appropriate authority.

(5) The Director-General shall inform the complainant, in writing, of the decision of the Commission in relation to the allegation.

49. (1) The Director-General may, by notice, in writing, require any person whose affairs are being investigated or any other person who the Director-General has reason to believe may have information or documents relevant to an investigation to—

- (a) attend before the Director-General as may be specified in the notice;
- (b) answer questions with respect to any matter or supply any information that may be relevant to the investigation; or
- (c) produce for inspection any documents which are specified in the notice.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply without prejudice to a person's rights under any other law relating to privilege.

50. (1) An officer may, without a warrant, enter and search any premises, other than a private dwelling except if the private dwelling is used for business purposes, for the purpose of attaching and removing, if necessary, any record, return, report, document or article, if the owner, occupier of the premises or other person in control of the premises consents to the entry, search, seizure and

(2) An officer exercising any power under this section shall, before entering and searching any premises, ensure that the owner, occupier or person in control of the premises is present.

51. (1) The Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission, in the performance of their duties, may apply for a warrant to a judge or a magistrate.

(2) A judge or magistrate to whom an application for a warrant is made under subsection (1) may issue the warrant where—

- (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that
  - (i) a person has failed to produce the documents required for purposes of this Act;
  - (ii) a person has failed to answer any questions asked for purposes of an investigation or that any answer given to any question is false or misleading in a material particular or is incomplete;
  - (iii) it is not practicable to serve a notice on a person by reason of the fact that the person cannot be located or is absent from Zambia, or that the service of a notice might prejudice an investigation; or
- (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that any document or other thing relevant to an investigation or that may be evidence of an offence under this Act is placed, deposited or concealed in the premises to which the warrant relates.

(3) A warrant issued under subsection (2) shall confer on the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission power to —

- (a) access all the books, records, returns, reports and other documents relating to the work of any public or private body;
- (b) enter and search, at any time, the premises of any public or private body or any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, where the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or officer has reasonable grounds to believe that any property or thing corruptly acquired has been placed, deposited or concealed therein;
- (c) search for and remove any document or other thing that may be relevant to an investigation or may be evidence of an offence;
- (d) where necessary, take copies of any document or extracts from documents that the person executing the warrant believes on reasonable grounds may be relevant to an investigation; and

(e) where necessary, to require any person to reproduce, or to assist to reproduce, in usable form, any information recorded or stored in any documents.

(4) In the exercise of powers of entry and search conferred under paragraph (b) of subsection (3), the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or other officer of the Commission, may use such reasonable force as is necessary and justifiable in the circumstances, and may be accompanied or assisted by such other persons as they consider necessary to assist them to enter into, or upon, any premises, or upon any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, as the case may be.

(5) A person who accompanies or assists the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or other officer of the Commission to enter into or upon any premises or upon any vessel, boat, aircraft or other conveyance, as the case may be, shall, during the period of such accompaniment or assistance, enjoy the same immunity as is conferred under section seventeen upon an officer of the Commission.

Inspection of banker's books 52. (1) The Director-General or an officer may, with a court order, investigate any bank account, share account, purchase account, expense account or any other account or safe deposit box in any bank.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be sufficient for the disclosure or production by any person of all or any information, account, document or article that may be required by an officer of the Commission so authorised.

Power of arrest

53. (1) The Director-General, the Deputy Director-General or an officer of the Commission authorised in that behalf by the Director-General may arrest a person, without warrant, if the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that such person has committed or is about to commit an offence under this Act.

(2) Where a person is arrested without warrant under subsection (1), such person may, at any time before appearing in court, while the person is in custody, be admitted to bail upon providing surety or sureties sufficient, in the opinion of the Director-General, Deputy Director-General or an officer authorised in that behalf by the Director-General, to secure that person's appearance before court, or the person may be released upon that person's own recognizance on such conditions as the officer thinks fit.

(3) A bail bond issued under this section shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Cap 88

54. (1) Where in the course of an investigation into an offence Seizure of property any movable or immovable property which is derived or acquired from corrupt practices, is the subject matter of an offence or is evidence relating to an offence, the officer shall, with a warrant,

(2) An officer who seizes any property pursuant to subsection (1) shall prepare and sign a list of all the movable or immovable property seized under that subsection and of the places in which the property is found.

seize the property.

(3) An officer shall serve a copy of the list referred to in subsection (2) on the owner of the property or on the person from whom the property was seized, not later than thirty days from the date of seizure.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "property" means real or personal property of any description, and includes money and any interest in the real or personal property.

55. (1) An officer shall effect a seizure by removing the movable property from the custody or control of the person from whom it is seized and placing it under the custody of such other person or authority and at such place as the officer may determine.

(2) An officer shall, where it is not practicable or otherwise not desirable to effect the removal of any property under subsection (1), leave it at the premises in which it is seized under the custody of such person as the officer may determine.

(3) An officer shall, where property is seized under subsection (2), make a record, in writing, specifying in detail the circumstances of, and the reason for, the seizure of the property and subsequent leaving of the property at the premises.

56. (1) The Director-General may, by written notice to a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence alleged or suspected to have been committed under this Act, or against whom a prosecution for an offence has been instituted, direct that such person shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in such notice without the consent of the Director-General.

(2) A notice issued under subsection (1) may be served by delivering it personally to the person to whom it is addressed or may, where the Director-General is satisfied that that person cannot be found, or is not in the Republic, be served on or brought to the knowledge of, that person in such other manner as the Director-General may direct.

(3) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall have effect from the time of service and shall continue in force for a period of nine Custody and release of seized property months or until cancelled by the Director-General, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice upon the expiry of the previous one for such further final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.

(4) A person who, having been served with, or having knowledge of a notice issued under subsection (1), disposes of or otherwise deals with, any property specified in the notice other than in accordance with the consent of the Director-General, commits an offence, and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

(5) A person aggrieved with the directive of the Director-General issued under subsection (1) may apply to the High Court for an order to reverse or vary the directive.

(6) An application made under subsection (5) shall give notice to the Director-General of the day appointed for the hearing of the application as a judge of the High Court may order.

(7) The High Court may, on the hearing of an application under subsection (5)—

(a) confirm the directive;

(b) reverse the directive and consent to the disposal of, or other dealing with, any property specified in the notice, subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit; or

(c) vary the directive as it thinks fit.

Restriction on disposal of property by third party 57. (1) The Commission may, where it has reasonable grounds to believe that a third party is holding any property, including money in a bank account for, or on behalf of, or to the order of, a person who is under investigation, by notice, in writing, under the hand of the Director-General, serve a notice on the third party directing that the third party shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property specified in the notice.

(2) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall be served on the third party to whom it is directed and on the person being investigated.

(3) The Commission may, in issuing a notice under this section impose such conditions as it may determine.

(4) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall have effect from the time of service upon the person to whom it is addressed and shall continue in force for a period of twelve months unless cancelled or varied by the Director-General:

> Provided that the Director-General may issue a fresh notice upon the expiry of the previous one for such further final term of six months to facilitate the conclusion of an investigation.

(5) A third party on whom a notice is served under subsection (1) who disposes of, or deals with, the property specified in the notice without the consent of the Director-General commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years.

(6) A third party on whom a notice is served under this section shall not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, the property specified in the notice except in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(7) Subsections (5), (6) and (7) of section fifty-five apply to this section.

58. A person who—

PART V

POWERS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS

59. (1) A prosecution for an offence under Part III shall not be instituted except by, or with, the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person may be charged with an offence under Part III and may be arrested, or a warrant for that person's arrest may be issued and executed, and the person may be remanded by the court in custody or on bail notwithstanding that the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution for the offence with which that person ischarged has not been obtained.

(3) Where a person is brought before a court before the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution against that person is obtained, the charge shall be explained to the accused person but the accused person shall not be called upon to plead.

60. (1) If any person, against whom investigations or proceedings for an offence under Part III are pending, is preparing or about to leave Zambia, whether temporarily or permanently, the Director of Public Prosecutions or any officer authorised in that behalf, may apply to any court for an order requiring such person to furnish bail in any sum, or, if already admitted to bail, in such greater sum and on such additional conditions, as the case may be, with or without sureties, and in any such application the court may make such order as it considers appropriate.

(2) An order made under this section, whether originally or on review, shall be reviewed within thirty days by the court which made the order.

PART VI

EVIDENCE, PRESUMPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS

61. (1) Where, in any proceeding under this Act, it is proved that any gratification has been received by any person with the knowledge and acquiescence or consent of the accused person, and the court is satisfied, having regard to that person's relationship to the accused person or to any other circumstances that such person has received the gratification for or on behalf of the accused person, or otherwise on account of, or in connection with, the office or duties of the accused person, shall be presumed to have been received by the accused person.

Consent of Director of Public Prosecutions

Bail where suspect or accused person about to leave Zambia

Presumption of corrupt intention (2) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under Part III, it is proved that any person solicited, accepted or obtained or agreed to accept or attempted to receive or obtain any payment in any of the circumstances set out in the relevant section under which that person is charged, then such payment shall, in the absence of a satisfactory explanation be presumed to have been solicited, accepted or obtained or agreed to be accepted, received or obtained corruptly.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), "payment" means any corrupt payment, whether in cash or in kind.

62. (1) Subject to the Plea Negotiations and Agreements Act, 2010, the Director of Public Prosecutions may, at any time, with a view to obtaining at a trial the evidence of any person directly or indirectly concerned with or privy to an offence under Part III, tender indemnity to such person on condition that the person makes a full and true disclosure of all facts or circumstances within that person's knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person involved in the commission thereof, whether as principal or in any other capacity, together with the delivery up of any document or thing constituting evidence or corroboration of the commission of the offence by the person to be charged or the accused person, as the case may be.

(2) The court shall record in the manner prescribed by the Criminal Procedure Code the evidence on oath of every person accepting indemnity under subsection (1) and shall transmit the record of such evidence to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) A person accepting indemnity under this section shall be examined as a witness at the trial.

(4) Where a person who has accepted indemnity under this section has, either by wilfully concealing anything material to the case, or by giving false evidence, not complied with the condition on which the indemnity was made, that person may be prosecuted for the offence in respect of which the indemnity was tendered or for any other offence of which the person appears to have been guilty in connection with the same matter.

(5) A person to whom indemnity has been made under subsection (1), who in the opinion of the court, has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which that person is lawfully examined, shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Director of Public Prosecutions stating that the person has made a true and full disclosure of all things as to which the person was examined, and such certificate shall be a bar to all legal proceedings against that person in respect of all such things as aforesaid. Protection of whistleblowers Act No. 4 of 2010 Absence of power, authority or opportunity, no defence 63. The provisions of the Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistleblowers) Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the protection of whistleblowers and other related matters.

64. Where a public officer has corruptly solicited, accepted, obtained or agreed to accept or attempted to receive or obtain any gratification, it shall not be a defence in any trial in respect of an offence under Part III that —

- (a) the appointment, nomination or election of such person or any other person as a public officer was invalid or void; or
- (b) the public officer or any other public officer did not have the power, authority or opportunity of doing, or of forbearing from doing, the act, favour or disfavour to which the gratification related.

65. Where any commission, body or tribunal established by or under the Constitution, or appointed under the Inquiries Act, in the course, or upon conclusion, of any proceedings before it, is of the opinion that the conduct of any person appears to constitute an offence under this Act and ought to be inquired into for the purposes of this Act, the commission, body or tribunal concerned shall, subject to any prohibition, restriction or restraint imposed upon it by, or under, the Constitution or any other written law, communicate its opinion to the Director-General, together with the particulars of the person concerned and such other facts of the case as the commission, body or tribunal may consider necessary.

66. For the purposes of any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act, the court may, at any stage of the proceedings, direct that any specified fact may be proved at the trial by affidavit:

Provided that the deponent may be summoned for cross examination.

67. (1)Where, at the conclusion of the trial of a person charged with an offence under Part III, the court is of the opinion that any person has wilfully, and with intent to harm or injure the accused person in any manner made a false, frivolous or groundless complaint or allegation against the accused person, the court shall certify that opinion in writing and shall transmit it together with a certified copy of the record of the proceedings to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2) Any person who, in the opinion of the court certified under subsection (1) has made a false, frivolous or groundless complaint or allegation to the effect that any person has committed or attempted to commit, or aided, abetted or counselled the commission of, or conspired with any other person to commit, any offence under Part III, commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to

68. The provisions of the Forfeiture of Proceeds of Crime Act, 2010, shall apply in relation to the seizure and forfeiture of any proceeds or property corruptly acquired by any person and any other related matters.

69. A person who tampers with any property that is seized or forfeited under this Act commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years.

70. (1) If, on the trial of a person who has committed an offence under Part III, it is not proved that the accused person committed the offence charged but it is proved that the accused person committed some other offence under this Act, the accused person may, notwithstanding the absence of the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions in respect of such other offence, be convicted of such other offence, and be liable to be dealt with accordingly.

(2) If, on the trial of any person for any offence under Part III, there is any material variance between the particulars of the offence charged and the evidence adduced in support thereof, such variance shall not, of itself, entitle the accused person to an acquittal of the offence charged if, in the opinion of the court, there is prima facie evidence of the commission of that offence.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), notwithstanding the absence of the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions in respect of the particulars supported by the evidence adduced, the court may make the necessary amendment to the particulars and shall thereupon read and explain the same to the accused person and the accused person shall be called to plead to the amended particulars and the parties shall be allowed to recall and examine, on matters relevant to such amendment, any witness who may have been examined and to call any further witness.

(4) If an amendment is made under subsection (3) after the prosecution's case is closed, no further witness shall be called by the prosecution other than a witness on such matters only as it would, apart from the provisions of this subsection, be permissible to call and put in evidence in rebuttal.
